Newsletter of the Quilters Guild of Plano

Wasn't Kaye England a hoot?? I wish I had been able to take one of her classes, but I had other plans for that weekend. Those of you that did need to report to us how the classes went and what you learned. Pass on your knowledge. That is what our guild is all about. Education. Whether we are out in the community teaching quilting to others, or we are teaching each other, our guild was founded on Education. And I think everyone of us is always willing to learn new tricks.

I was very disappointed on the outcome of our voting on having an annual quilt show. So many members came up to me after the meeting and expressed their concern that they really did not understand the ramifications of a no vote. Kemberly Wilshire, our quilt chair for 2011, spoke with me the next day. And while we may not get the exact dates we wanted for 2012 it is still possible to get a different weekend if we act quickly. I checked in our bylaws and there is nothing printed, for or against, on having a revote immediately. So I am proposing that we vote again at the October guild meeting. In her article in this newsletter, Donna Petrick is going to write about some of our expenses in having guest speakers ... see page 8, "Kaye England Program and Workshop". And I think we all agree that we want as many guest speakers as we can afford. So when you vote again keep in mind that the profits from all our quilt shows go toward our guest speakers. We will publish the proposed change in this newsletter and vote again in October. But this time we will have a general discussion prior to voting so everyone thoroughly understands what a yes or no vote does to our guild. I appreciate all the feedback I have received and think a revote is in the best interest of the guild.

See you at the October meeting!

Happy Quilting.
Sheri Smith, President

MINUTES OF August 2010 - Donna Lobeleon, Secretary

The meeting was called to order by President Sheri Smith at 7:03. She reminded everyone to turn off their cell phones. She welcomed the Mc Kinney and the Allen Quilt Guilds and invited members to purchase tickets for their raffle quilts.

The Minutes to the August meeting and the treasurer's report were accepted as printed. All members in attendance voted on the proposed by-laws change to allow annual quilt shows. There was no old business

The Next board meeting will be October 11, 2010 at Tino's restaurant. The business meeting will start at 7:00 pm; arrive at 6:00 if you would like dinner.

The membership directories were passed out at the September meeting and will be mailed to members not in attendance.

Committee Reports:

Margaret Schafer, education, asked for volunteers to assist with a quilting program at Prestonwood Court on Wednesday September 15, 2010 at 2:00 pm, and for the International Festival on October 2, 2010.

Teri Mendelow (for Julie Schaefer), Community Service, announced that Hope's Door would like six children's quilts, three for boys and three for girls, in December. Teri reminded everyone to log in their volunteer hours.

Cynthia Weisz, Mini Quilt Auction, thanked members for donating mini quilts, asked members to keep making them and mentioned the prize basket that one mini quilt donor will win.

Donna Petrick, Programs, showed samples for Mary Massey's in October class, "Not Your Grandmother's Log Cabin".

Connie Litfin, Block of the Month, participants showed their completed blocks. Sally Hamilton was the monthly winner.

Crisann Skinner, Membership, announced that 86 members, seven new members and 14 guests were in attendance.

Sheri Smith announced that that proposal to change to an annual quilt show did not pass. It was defeated by four votes. Discussion followed that members did not understand that the reason for wanting an annual show was to increase fund raising. It was suggested that we vote on this change again.

By-Laws Change – Quilt Show

Article 6.18.3 states: (Quilt Show Chair) Is responsible for the biennial quilt show and may appoint committees to carry out this function as necessary.

Proposed change to read: Is responsible for the annual quilt show and may appoint committees to carry out this function as necessary.

The above change in the By-Laws is requested at this time due to the timing of reserving the facility for producing future quilt shows. The complete By-Laws are under review by a committee and changes will be presented to the guild in total at a future date.

Donna Petrick, Committee Chair By-Laws Review

Congratulations are in order!

PICTURE NO LONGER AVAILABLE

Congratulations to our very own Joan Wilson. One of her quilts, designed and made by her has been chosen to be published in a book that is to be released in the fall of 2011.

The book is to be the third in a trilogy of books about quilts made in Texas and is authored by Karey Patterson Bresenhan and Nancy O'Bryant Puentes. Their two previous publications are "Lone Stars, A Legacy of Texas Quilts, 1836-1936", and "Lone Stars, A Legacy of Texas Quilts, 1936-1986". In the formal notification, Karey stated, "There are only 200 quilts in the book to represent the last 25 years of quilt making in Texas, and you are one of the honored quilt makers." "Selecting the quilts was a huge challenge because of the number of extraordinary pieces that were submitted for consideration. It was certainly difficult to make the final selections since we were trying to include such a wide variety of quilts--original pieces, traditional quilts made from patterns, award-winning quilts, mini quilts, mixed media quilts, group quilts, etc. We enjoyed reacquainting ourselves with quilt makers whose work we remember from the past and found it equally exciting to see how many new names can be found in the final list. Texas is truly a "hotbed" of quilt making!"

COMMUNITY SERVICE - Julie Schaefer

I'm writing this ahead of time because I will be up North in cooler weather for the Guild General Meeting and won't be seeing you. I want to thank everyone that brought in quilts pieced, quilted and/or bound. I will be taking them to the various agencies when I am back. Also, thanks for bringing back completed Christmas stockings. Now remember to collect soaps, shampoos, et al from your trips as well as any feminine hygiene items that we can put in stockings for the women at Parkland. Remember also that we will need small books, toys, pencils, crayons, candy etc. to stuff children's stockings. I always find these items when I go into target at the front beside the checkout counters. Surprising what you can glean from there. I hope you picked up some kits for stockings from LaDawn Dalley at the meeting.

Karen reminded me that Hopes Door is looking for quilts for 10-12 year olds. We will need these for December. They are only asking for 3 boy and 3 girl oriented quilts. It shouldn't be a problem. She also wanted me to remind you that it is time to start making small – 36" square – Christmas quilts for Children's Advocacy Center. We will be delivering these at the end of November so we have to get started now.

This article wouldn't be complete without mentioning that the Second Tuesday Community Service Sew Day will continue every month but December. (We always have a really neat luncheon instead of sewing on that day in December.) I would love to see every table full of activity every month. It is always the second Tuesday of the month at the Plano Sewing Center located on the southeast corner of Spring Creek and Custer. You can come at any time between 10:00 and 4:00. Karen is usually there from about 9:45 to 5:00. You can come and go as you want; bring your lunch or eat out with your friends. She will have a kit for you to sew; you only need to bring you traveling sewing machine and kit with scissors, needles, and pins if you use them and neutral thread. The one hard core rule is that you let Karen know if you are coming so that she is prepared with enough kits. Karen.christoffer@tx.rr.com 972-377-3018 or 972-365-0383.

Margaret Schafer will probably be announcing at the meeting the two upcoming educational activities she has scheduled. She is an ageless person going from one age extreme to the other. The first to come up is on September 15th at 2:00 pm at the retirement facility of Prestonwood Court (ladies primarily in their 80's and 90's). She will have more information to give you at the meeting. The second is our usual International Festival on Saturday, October 2nd from 11:00 am to 5:00 pm. This is always a fun thing to do because we always have a bunch of kids around the tables at Haggard Park. There are 2 hour shifts and we will need those who know red work as well as those who can help kids color. I was going to say, "Those who can color in the lines" but I don't want to put too much pressure on. Margaret will probably have a signup sheet for you if you are interested.

I especially want to send a thank you and a big hug to my friend Aggie Meszaros who delivered 10 large quilts to the Veterans Administration Hospital in Bonham on September 20th. She's such a sweetie!

I hope you didn't forget to sign in your service hours in the 3-ring black binder at the Community Service Table. My friend Terri Mendelow will be bringing it to the Guild. Thanks Terri. Isn't it nice to have friends that will help you? In case you forgot to sign the book, email me and give me your time. juliescha@sbcglobal.net Sharon McGinnis did and I put them right on the roster and in the book!

Membership - Crisann Skinner and Maria Eakin

A big welcome to our new members! We are glad to have you join us and look forward to getting to know you. Our guild not only has many opportunities for you to share your talents, but as a member you will also expand your knowledge of our wonderful and creative craft through workshops, guest speakers, and friendship groups. If anyone has any questions regarding the guild, please do not hesitate to contact Crisann Skinner or Maria Eakin via email at membership@quiltersguildofplano.org.

We hope everyone who attended the guild meeting was able to pick up their directory. For those who were unable to do so, we have mailed the directory to you. We also included your membership card for 2011 if it had not already been picked up. The directory has a lot of great information and serves as a great reference regarding our guild. Please take the time to go through it and you may find you will learn something new about our guild that you did not know before. If you are interested in purchasing an extra copy of the directory, they will be available for $10 each.

Thank you to everyone who assisted us with hosting our new members and handing out directories at the September meeting. We would not have been able to do it without you!

BOARD MEETING,

Donna Lobelseon, Secretary

There was not a Board meeting this month due to the Labor Day Holiday. Board meetings will resume next month. ...

Kaye England Program and Workshop—Donna Petrick

It was wonderful to see so many of you turn out for Kaye England's program and to have a good number of you sign up for the two workshops. Kaye was full of information, techniques and funny stories. One of the best things about our guild is that we have been able to bring in such wonderful speakers. However, I don't think that most of you have any idea what it cost to bring in such talent. Most people look at the budget when we are done for the year and don't think about what it represents. Kaye England cost us $2,250 plus airfare, lodging and food. Her lecture was $450. Each workshop was $900. If we had 20 people in each workshop, paying $45.00, we would have paid for the workshops. Of course, we didn't, so the lecture, balance of the workshops and balance of her expenses have to be paid by the guild.

When you take into consideration that we bring in 5 to 6 speakers a year, you can see how quickly our money is spent. The money comes from the biennial quilt show. Without our quilt show, we could not have the programs we enjoy so much. For the national speakers, we have to get on their calendars as much as 2 years ahead of the program. We have to hold back money from the show to pay for those future speakers. Needless to say, it takes money to run this organization and provide the membership with fun, worthwhile programs. Please try to take advantage of the workshops and attend the lectures.

Raffle quilt update—Margaret Schafer

“Goose On the Loose” Headed for the Final Landing

It has been traveling since February, but in just one more month some lucky person will take our donation/raffle quilt home with them. This quilt has received rave reviews at every Quilt Shop, Quilt Guild Meeting, or Quilt Show where it has appeared. Have you bought your tickets yet? If not, they will be available again this month at Guild meeting, and we encourage you to pick up a packet of 24 for only $20.00. We will even sell them in singles if you insist for $1.00 or six for $5.00. Remember, this is a major fund raiser for the Guild. Want to know how you can help out? Just buy your tickets, volunteer to take the quilt out, or give us some new ideas on where we might take it for visit in the next couple of months. Remember, October 31 is just around the corner. I’m glad that I have my name in the basket several times. How about you?
