The President Says ...

Wasn't Germaine great? Her quilts prove she is quite an artist. My favorite is the Piecemaker quilt with all the ribbon embroidery on it. It is truly spectacular. Thank you Germaine for sharing all your beautiful quilts with us.

And now what we have been waiting two years for: Our quilt show is just a few days away. I hope everyone has signed up to help. We will send out a message just before the show listing all the jobs that must be filled. So you will have one last chance to participate and help this show run as smoothly as in the past. I can hardly wait to see everyone's entries. I'm sure they will be fabulous. Who knows, you might even win a ribbon.

We traditionally have preview night on our meeting night. For the new members this is your opportunity for you and your family to view the quilts without the hustle and bustle of the crowds. Sometimes there are a few vendors open, but usually we are just there to see the quilts. And this year our show chair, Kemberly Wilshire, has a special treat: we will have dessert before viewing the quilts! We will meet at the Plano Centre at 7:00 for a very brief business meeting and then view the quilts. When you sign in you will be given one "Member's Choice" ballot. Be sure to choose the quilt you think is the best of the best and cast your ballot before leaving.

We will be accepting mini quilts for the auction right up until the day of the show, so if you missed the deadline you can still turn it in to Kemberly, myself, or Tina Connolly before the show or anyone on the mini committee the first day of the show.

And be sure to wear your show shirt when you are working. We want to stand out in the crowd!

See you at preview night,
Sheri Smith, President

A Call for Volunteers—Kemberley Wilshire

Our quilt show is quickly approaching and we have a few more spots to fill. I know we do this every show, we send out the call and we always have a great response from the membership and the show goes fabulously. So I will be placing the needs below and the person you need to contact to fill those spots. If you work your hours that you signed up for and then decide you have more time, please check with MJ in Hospitality, she will have an idea of where more people are needed. Remember: if you do not have a day pass to the show you can work 4 hours (split them between 2 days if you like) or you can bring your Membership card and pay $3 at the door.

Preview Night: 7:00 pm Thursday evening. Come and see the quilts with your families. We will have beverages and a few snack deserts to show our appreciation to our membership available. Then you will be encouraged to go in and see the show prior to opening to the public and place your vote for the Members Choice Award. This will be counted after preview and placed for you to see on Friday.

Quilt Angels: This job is a great place to look closely at the quilts and allow the public to see the back of quilts. You will be wearing one of our fabulous aprons made just for the Quilt Angels and a pair of gloves so that no one touches the quilts. Contact: Margaret Schafer at dschafer@tx.rr.com.

Set Up: This is a very fun job. We actually hang the 200+ quilts prior to judging. As the categories fill, we take them and hang them up for all to see. We have a great time. Contact: Emily Armstrong at EArmstrong@lifetimefitness.com.

Ribbons: This job is responsible for hanging all the ribbons that go on each quilt that gives the description and who made the quilt and also all winner's ribbons. So, if you would like to be one of the first to know the winners, come and hang ribbons! Contact Julie Schaeffer—juliesch@sbcglobal.net.

Admissions If you need to work in a sitting position, we have lots here too! Each slot needs 5-7 people. You will be taking money from patrons entering our show and handing out the programs (both patrons and children). Contact Sharon Umphred—sharon.umphred@gmail.com.

Raffle Quilt: This is another great sit down job. You sit and talk to everyone about the raffle and encourage people to buy a raffle ticket. Contact Maria Eakin—maria@eakin.org.

Hospitality: This is yet another great sit down job. You get to meet all the volunteers coming to drop off their purses and shopping bags. There will be sign in sheets, and you get to hand out the charms for this years show and the day passes for volunteers that worked. Contact MJ Fielek—mfielek@tx.rr.com.

Kid's Area: You will assist in showing basic sewing strips and also handing our coloring pages to children to color. Contact Teresa Knode—bearhugquilts@yahoo.com.

Community Service—Red Work: If you like to work Red work, please sign up for this great area. We will have blocks ready to work on. You can sit and do hand work all day! Contact Teresa Knode—bearhugquilts@yahoo.com.

Minutes from July 14, 2011 - Julie Schaefer, Secretary

President Sheri Smith called the meeting to order at 7:05 pm.

NEW BUSINESS

- Changes to the minutes and Treasurer's report were called. Since none were presented both minutes and Treasurer's report were accepted as written in the Common Threads Newsletter of July 2011.
- Sheri recommended that the Treasurer's Report be deleted from all further newsletters. Open discussion was held. Many members reported reading them and this suggestion for minimizing the newsletter was set aside.
- Reading of "Thank you" note from Heritage Farm Museum.
- Notation made that there were many sign-up sheets for volunteering: International Festival, raffle quilt showing, and Quilt Plano 2011 show.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

- Kemberly Wilshire, Show Chair, reported on Quilt Plano 2011. We still have show pins for $6.00; $5.00 for salad or sandwich ticket for Friday and Saturday; Kids will get programs; if members work 4 hours on the show they will receive a charm spool to put on Guild pin. Get preshow entrance tickets from Sharon Umphred.
- Tina Connolly reported for Cynthia Weisz on mini quilts for the Show. She showed those that had been handed in this evening.
- Helen Wilems, VP Membership, reported that we have 190 entrant quilts for the show. She also reported that we had 72 members present at this meeting with 2 guests (Jane Bayarena and Jean Pingnot) and 5 new members: Sue Brown, Sapana Chhaya, Lynne Haley, Jill Isakson, and Gayle Thurston. Nine door prizes were awarded that were donated by Fabric Fanatics, Jenny Bug's, Quilter's Connection, Quilt Country, Suzy's Quilt Shop, The Old Craft Store, The Quilt Asylum and The Quilter's Workshop. Don't forget to renew your membership by August 1st to be listed in the Guild Directory.
- Terri Mendelow, VP Community Service, thanked those that brought in quilts and suggested that there are still many kits to be made, quilted and bound, all of which may be found on the Community Service table. She reported on the primary Agencies approved by the Board that the Guild will be donating to for the 2011-12 year.
- Janet Plotkin reminded everyone that the next Guild retreat will be in February and there is plenty of space for everyone.

At 7:30 we had a presentation from Germaine Reconnu exhibiting her quilts. At 7:55 was Show and Tell. The meeting was adjourned at 8:05 pm.

Community Service—Terri Mendelow

The Second Tuesday Sit & Sew group has been very busy. In June, we worked on the adorable "Spot the Dog" quilt tops, provided for us by Sherry Worley and Kaye Dunn. Spot is an annual favorite and you hear many "ooohs" and "aaahhs" when Spot shows up. We also pick our favorites we wish we could take home, as well as the beautiful crocheted afghans June Austin brings in. We are so glad to be able to donate these quilts and afghans to the agencies we support in the community.

In July, the group worked on wonderful, scrappy strip blocks that will go into some really great looking quilts. Karen Christoffer and Carrie Oransky work hard to come up with designs and cut our kits for us. If you would like to come to the Second Tuesday Sit & Sew, email Karen at karen.christoffer@tx.rr.com or give her a call, so she can make sure to have a seat for you. We meet from 10am-4pm, and you can come at the time that best fits your schedule.

Kits for quilt tops and cuddle quilts are available for membership at the Community Service table at each guild meeting. If you would prefer to quilt, we have tops with batting and backing. If you like to do binding, we have quilts ready for this final step, along with the label that tells our recipients where their quilt came from. I have to say, I've been so pleased to see the quilts are coming in with these labels attached! Thank you!

At the Board Meeting on July 11, a vote was taken on the agencies that will receive donations from QGP for the year. They are:

- Children's Medical Center at Legacy: pillowcases and cuddle quilts.
- Collin County Children's Advocacy Center: children's quilts and afghans.
- Parkland Hospital: the stocking project.
- The Turning Point: Rape Crisis Center: quilts for children, teens and adults, and afghans.
- Soldiers' Angels: the stocking project.

There are several agencies which also receive donations from the guild on an occasional basis.

This month Community Service received:

10 quilts	2 cuddle quilts
11 quilt tops	3 afghans.

Thank you all for the time and energy you give for Community Service!

Let's not forget the Stocking Project! The Holidays are right around the corner (hard to believe with this heat wave). La Dawn has been very busy making the stocking kits for us. She still needs fun, holiday kids fabric and the patriotic themed fabric. You can bring your donations to the guild meeting or to the Second Tuesday Sit & Sew.

Finally, the August guild meeting will be the Preview Night for our Quilt Show. This will be a very brief meeting. We will not be collecting donations that night or providing kits, but they will be available at the September meeting.

We always have a great time at preview night where members get to vote on their favorite quilt for the show. See you there!

Until next time, keep those seams straight!

Terri

Quilt Show 2011—Kemberly Wilshire, Quilt Show Chair

Hello Quilters:

As we are all preparing our beautiful works of art that we will be putting in our very own Quilt Show in August, I want you to be mindful of the fact that just because you are members, does not give you free access into the show. This is a fund raiser for us. Yet, there are 4 ways to get in the show for FREE and one way to get a discount on the entry price. I do believe these options are very fair and do not require you to work only at the show time. I realize that timing can be difficult to many that work or have other obligations during the day.

So, I have listed out the ways below for you to be a BIG contributor and earn ONE DAY FREE ENTRY!

- Volunteer to work 4 hours during the show (August 10th—August 13th)
- Work 4 hours selling raffle quilt tickets prior to the show at scheduled locations
- Donate 2 or more Mini Quilts for the Mini Auction
- $100 or more individual ticket sales for the Raffle Quilt (does not include the scheduled locations)

We will track these hours for you when you sign up to participate and support our show. Then the day you come to the show, the day pass will be waiting for you in the Hospitality Room and all you have to do is sign for it.

The cost for members is $3 when presenting your membership card.

*** Do Not Forget—Preview Night (Thursday Night) - All members and families are admitted free of charge!

*** Day Pass tickets will be at Hospitality for you to pick up!

I encourage each and every one of you to look for a way to get involved, not only with the show but with our wonderful guild. It takes a big group to make this run well. It takes you giving just a little. If each of us gives a little - there is not a lot for a few to do.

Thank you in advance for all you do to make our guild WONDERFUL!

See you there,

Kemberly Wilshire
