

Quilters Guild of Plano, Inc.

March 2013

Volume 31, Issue 3

The President Says

I would like to thank all the members that came to the guild meeting and took part in running the meeting, whether it was greeting members, visiting with new members, or helping at the sit and sew day for Community Service Day. It was great to have 6 new members and 3 members that renewed their membership.

I am trying to get ready for the retreat. I know that I will take many more projects than is humanly possible to complete. I always take way too many things but it is good to be able to change to something else when you get bored with the one you are working on.

I hope everyone is working on their quilts for the show. If you have never entered a quilt in a show let this be the year to do it. You know the expression JUST DO IT.

We need mini's for the quilt show. Let's all try to make one.

HAPPY QUILTING
M J Fielek

Brenda Jeschke – Why I Made This Quilt

Brenda Jeschke has been quilting since 1982. She loves traditional quilts and makes mostly bed-size quilts. She machine pieces, hand appliques, and hand quilts. All her quilts are made from patterns that are in the public domain and available to any quilter.

In 1996 Brenda had a quilt exhibit at the Ziegler Museum in Jennings, Louisiana. The May 2003 issue of Quilters' Newsletter Magazine published Brenda's article about a binding technique she developed that uses straight-grain binding with butted corners. Her quilt Wedgewood Blue was featured in the book "Mastering the Art of McTavishing" by Karen McTavish. Hers was the only hand-quilted quilt in a book by a machine quilter.

She started showing her quilts in competition in 1989 and has won many awards on the local, regional, and national level. She is a member of the American Quilter's Society (AQS), the National Quilting Association (NQA), The Applique Society (TAS), and the Quilters' Guild of East Texas (QGET) in Tyler, Texas.

Brenda has been teaching quilt classes since 1991 and began lecturing throughout Texas in 2001. She and her husband live on a small farm outside of Buffalo. Her other hobbies include working in her yard and garden, in addition to the upkeep of the farm. She also enjoys all types of embroidery work (such as cross-stitch, hardanger, and silk ribbon). Above all she considers herself "just an ordinary girl who happens to love to make quilts and share my knowledge".

Don't miss Brenda's humorous stories and informative lecture, "Why I Made This Quilt". This is a trunk show consisting of about 25 quilts. She will talk about color combinations, special techniques used, design changes, and using quilting to enhance your quilts.

Community service—Terri Mendelow

Deliveries in February included 12 quilts and 5 afghans to the Rape Crisis Center; 13 quilts and 2 afghans to the Children's Advocacy Center; and 12 quilts and 3 afghans to My Friend's House.

Donations to the PISD School Age Parent Program will be made at the end of April. Please complete any of the simple squares baby quilt kits and return them to the March meeting. They will need to be quilted and bound for delivery in April, so we do need to get the tops back in March.

There are some new notations on the end of the ties on the quilts to be quilted. These tell if they are for long-arm quilters, and also shows the size of the backing and the quilt size. This information will be useful as you decide which choice to make to work on at home.

The Stocking Project is continuing to take holiday and patriotic themed material donations. The stockings will go to Soldier's Angels this Christmas.

In addition, the Service Learning Project is making flannel receiving blankets to donate to Parkland Hospital's newborn nursery. Any of these fabrics that you can donate to these projects will be greatly appreciated.

Community Service needs your Hobbs barcode labels. These labels will go toward a discount on the large rolls of batting for donation quilts. It takes a lot of batting for the amount of quilts we are able to donate. Please cut the label from the bags of Hobbs you may have at home and give them to Donna Petrick or to me.

The next 2nd Tuesday Sit & Sew will be March 12th at the Plano Sewing Center from 10 a.m. til 3 p.m. You can come and go depending on your schedule. Please contact Karen Christoffer at: karen.christoffer@tx.rr.com, so she can plan a kit for you to sew and a place for you. This is a fun group and a great way to get to know other members. We look forward to having you join us!

Please remember to record your Service Hours in the log book at the Community Service table or to email them to Julie Schaefer at: juliescha@sbcglobal.net. Your hours will make you eligible for guild recognition pins and for the Presidential Volunteer Award. Please include your travel time as well as part of guild service hours.

Thank you all so much for all you do to make Community Service a big success!
Your participation is so valuable to us!

Happy Spring, everyone!

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

Education: Margaret Schaefer reported that the planning committee held their meeting on January 24th and there was a lot of discussion and good ideas. March 20th the Guild will be

Community Service: Terri Mendelow reported that 25 completed tops, 4 quilts, and 8 afghans were turned in. She asked that if you have any Hobbs batting at home that you remove the bar codes from the plastic and turn them in to either Terri or Donna Petrick. They help give us a discount when we buy batting for the service quilts we make. LaDawn Dalley needs flannel for her Service Learning Students. If you have any baby quilts please turn them in; we will be giving them to the PISD Pregnancy Program. Don't forget to finish the cuddles which we give to Children's Medical Center at Legacy. The next Sit and Sew will be on March 12th at Plano Sewing Center from 10:00 to 3:00. Don't forget to turn in your service hours to Julie Schaefer or put them on the forms near the community service tables.

Quilt Plano 2013: Kemberly Wilshire reported that the show shirts are available if you ordered them. She has a few extra large sizes available if you didn't order and would like one. Please "bling" them up and in April she will have 2-3 people who will judge the best-decorated shirt. The raffle quilt was shown. She asked that you please think about being a member of the show committee. Cynthia Weisz asked that members bring mini quilts to be auctioned at the show. A door prize will be given at every meeting for a person bringing a mini. Remember to plan to go to the Dallas Quilt Guild's Show for 2013 in March.

Guild Activities: Six members showed their block of the month. Please know that if you print the pattern from Debbie Mum's website that the appliqué will be smaller than on the Guild website.

Show and Tell: Dee Ann McFarlin assisted in showing 6 quilts made by 5 members: Shirley Weaver—"Bursting Buds"; Debra Linker—"Rocky Raccoon"; Raquel Blanco—"Pink and Purple Paradise" and "Sally" all curved log cabins, Sharon Wilhelm—"Dizzy Geese", and Meg Belanger—"Sudoku Quilt".

Education News—Margaret Schafer

We had a very successful meeting on January 24th with the Education Committee. There were only seven of us there, but we covered a number of subjects. Our next educational activity will be the “Shapes” program for the Isaacs Early Childhood School on March 20th. We will give four presentations on the shapes the children have been studying and how they fit into quilts.

On April 4th, we will be working with a Mom’s Class at St. Mark’s Catholic Church where we will be teaching Redwork.

Shirley Weaver’s Sew Happy Quilters at the Plano Senior Center continues to meet on the second Thursday of the month, and they are having a great time.

We are currently previewing several DVDs with the possibility of showing them prior to guild meetings on Thursday nights. If you are interested and would like to participate in any of these activities, just contact Margaret Schafer or Shirley Weaver. Your help is always welcome.
