

Quilters Guild of Plano, Inc.

SEPTEMBER 2013

VOLUME 31, ISSUE 9

THE PRESIDENT SAYS

I want to start this letter by thanking everyone for all their help at the quilt show. Not only did the members work but many family members worked. Husbands and kids all pitched in and helped make this a great show. It is nice to do something in which the whole family can be involved.

We really have lots of talent in our guild. I like seeing what everyone has been working on all year. I think we do not have as much at show and tell as we use to because everyone is waiting for the show. Keep up the great work we only have 12 months to get more completed for 2014.

The winner of this year's raffle quilt is Rebecca Clayton. Rebecca is a member of the guild. If you don't know her, I will introduce her at the next meeting. CONGRATULATIONS REBECCA!

Now that the show is over maybe we can all get back to doing things that we have put aside for several months. I am going to play catch up at my house and yard. The yard will have to be in the early morning and maybe I can work on a quilt in the AC in the afternoon. There were many new & great patterns in the vendor's booths. We all probably purchased one that we will never have time to make but isn't it fun to just read the directions and think about the color combinations we will use to make the quilt.

If you did not get to attend the skill demos maybe the guild can have a skill night for members. If you are interested in skill demos please let me know.

SHOW THANK YOU—DONNA PETRICK

Thank you to all of you who helped put on our wonderful quilt show. I wanted to share with you some of the comments from the vendors. A number of them expressed to me how they thought the quilt quality was extremely good and how well the show was run. But what pleased me the most was that they also said this is a very friendly and helpful guild and they really enjoy vending with us. Two of the vendors, Michelle Watts and Sherrill Lewis, donated mini quilts to our auction. Thank you for being so nice to the vendors and offering your assistance. I've always said—"happy vendors, good show". You made them very happy.

September Guest Speaker— Harriet Hargrave

Harriet started quilting seriously in 1974, working alongside her mom. Her early quilting career included producing baby quilts for craft shows and teaching adult education classes. In 1981, Harriet opened her quilt shop, Harriet's Treadle Arts. Her specialties at the time were free-motion embroidery, machine arts, and machine quilting. In 1982, Harriet attended one of Mary Ellen Hopkins's seminars. Mary Ellen's streamlined techniques and innovative design ideas led Harriet to a new way of thinking, which caused her to give up the machine arts and to teach only quilting. Today, she is world renowned for being a true "mover and shaker" in the quilt world. In the late 1990s, she was voted one of the "88 Leaders of the Quilt World." Harriet created and inspired a whole new generation of machine quilters with her bestselling book Heirloom Machine Quilting, which has enjoyed 22 continuous years in print. She is also the author of Mastering Machine Appliqué and From Fiber to Fabric, and co-author of "The Art of Classic Quiltmaking". She is responsible for a myriad of products pertaining to machine quilting, and she has developed batting with Hobbs Bonded Fibers and designed fabric for P&B Textiles. Visit Harriet's web site at www.harriethargrave.com.

Harriet will be our September guest speaker but the guild is not sponsoring any September workshops. If you would like to take a workshop with Harriet, please contact Happiness is Quilting at (972) 542-8839. Their ad appears in this newsletter.

COMMUNITY SERVICE— TERRI MENDELOW

The big news of the month of course was the Show in August. Community Service joined with Education to facilitate the Kids and Community Service area. We instructed kids and parents on the skills of making coloring block quilts and redwork quilts. We had many visitors over the two days and they were very enthusiastic about the projects. Many parents and grandparents wanted to learn and know more about the skills and about Community Service projects. A big thanks to Debbie Skorepa, who was in charge of the room and supplies and to all the volunteers who helped make it a big success.

Our next 2nd Tuesday Sit and Sew will be on September 10, from 10-3 p.m. at the Plano Sewing Center on Custer and Springcreek Parkway. Please come and join the group. We have a great time working on donation quilts. Let Karen Christoffer know if you are coming so she can plan a space for you. We have pre-made kits to make tops for Community Service quilts. Just bring your sewing machine and sewing supplies. Karen's email is karen.Christoffer@tx.rr.com.

Many service hours were earned preparing for and working at the Show. Please make sure you are credited with these hours. You may be eligible for the Presidential Volunteer Award or guild recognition for your service. The Guild cannot function without the time and dedication of so many talented people. Please email your service hours to Julie Schaefer at juliescha@sbcglobal.net. You can also log your hours in the Service Hours binder at the Community Service table at the meetings.

As always, thank you for your support in making Community Service a success.

QUILT PLANO 2013 MINIATURE SILENT AUCTION REPORT— CYNTHIA WEISZ & TINA CONNOLLY

Thank you, thank you, thank you for the great minis that you donated to the silent auction. We reached our goal of $55 per mini and passed it!! The average price paid was $56.71. There were 79 minis, including the two donated by Sherrill Lewis of the Bead Ranch and J Michelle Watts. All were sold. Your minis brought the guild $4480! The 36 mini makers should be very proud of that total which reflects a 27.6% increase over the 2012 show. Our small group had so much fun this year watching and listening to our guests as they looked at your handiwork. Over and over, we heard about the variety and quality of your work. Many said your minis were the best display they had ever seen. We agree.

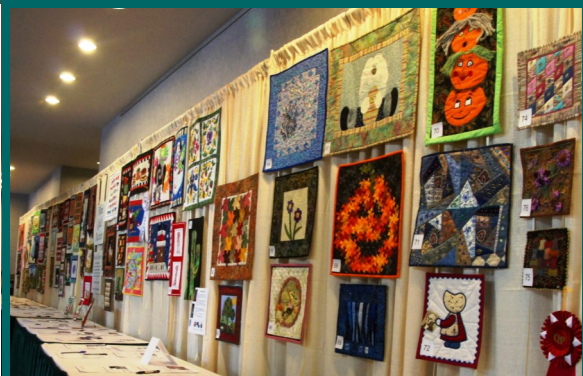

You will be receiving a thank you note with the total sales price of your donated work. That note can be used for tax purposes. As always, the public generally doesn't understand the amount of time you put into your work. One 12 x 12 quilt with 720 pieces in it went for less than $100. Do not be discouraged because when you do your best work you will feel a personal satisfaction no matter what price your quilt brings.

The show judges also judged the minis. First place went to Ileana Salzer for her triangle beauty. Second place went to Cynthia Weisz for her tiny wool hand done jewel. And third place went to Paula Washler for her hot cups of coffee. Honorable Mention was awarded to Rose-Clair Fletcher for her fairy art quilt. New member Pam Wingate's LOVE quilt was sold for the highest price of $200. The first three places received gift cards to the Texas Quilter.

Now, on to Quilt Plano 2014!

- Use the cute patterns you bought at the show to make some more great minis.
- Get ideas from Pinterest and make your own designs.
- Keep taking classes to perfect your skills.
- And think about joining the AQOP (Art quilters of Plano) to learn new artsy techniques.

Thank you again for making those gorgeous minis and for Kemberly and her layout committee for giving the Miniature Silent Auction the prime spot in the Centre!

Wow! What a tremendous response to all our quilting-related skills demos at Quilt Plano 2013. A million thanks to all the wonderful teachers who so willingly gave of their time and talent to make the demos possible. They made the Northbrook Room a very popular stop for our quilt show attendees. Your hard work is greatly appreciated, and we will be calling on you again next year. We added several new skills this year from the art quilters group, and they were so much fun. I just cannot wait until next year to see what skills we can add. The Children's Area was well attended, and lots of children made crayon blocks and learned how to do redwork. Thanks to Debbie Skorepa and all her helpers we now have lots of new blocks to put into children's quilts for community service this coming year.

Our Junior Quilting Group continues to meet the third Saturday of the month at the Texas Quilter. We meet on Saturday, August 17, and this month's class will be on fusible appliqué as they make ice cream cones for their monthly quilt block. The children are really having fun with this class, and they are learning lots of quilting-related skills. It was so nice to see several of our Junior Quilters at the Quilt Show. We are building future quilters to enter quilts into the show and new talent for organizing and running the quilt show. Congratulations to junior quilter, Victoria Wilshire, for her blue-ribbon in this year's show. We have to have many entries from our junior quilters in next year's show.

Education's next big event will be the annual Plano International Festival on Saturday, October 5 from 11:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. in Haggard Park in downtown Plano. We will have our children's booth, and we will need volunteers to help with this big event. The children will once again be making crayon blocks and doing redwork squares.

Also, remember our Sew Happy Group of senior quilters who meet the first and second Thursday of every month from 1:00 to 5:00 at the Plano Senior Center. After the quilting sessions on the second Thursday, a group of the quilters grab a quick meal together then go to the monthly Quilters Guild of Plano meeting. All seniors are welcome to attend these enjoyable quilting sessions.

There will be an all-day Education Workshop on Thursday, September 19, to cut squares for the International Festival, to press and square the crayon blocks made at the festival last year and at the Quilt Show this year. These will be separated into kits to turn over to Community Service for adding the sashing, borders, batting and backing. We need all the help we can get, so put this date on your calendar, and we will send out a special e-mail notice with all the details.

TAQG—SHERRY WORLEY

The Quilters Guild of Plano has joined the Host Guilds of Rally Day 2014. Individual members will not see much effect until the actual week of Rally Day. TAQG Rep Sherry Worley will be joined on the Committee by Donna Petrick. We will work closely with Pam Walsh to advertise Quilt Plano 2014 through TAQG and Rally Day 2014.

The date of Rally Day 2014 is July 12. Individual members will be asked to volunteer to work on that day. Some possible jobs are manning admission tables, giving out door prizes and overseeing lunch pickup. I know that we can count on you to help out!

The Quilters Guild of Plano donated 8 mini quilts to the TAQG Auction this year. Our member, Lynne Fritsche, donated the quilt that raised the most money. We need to start thinking about our mini quilts for next year. The Quilters Guild of Plano has been the leader in the TAQG Auction for several years. We donate more quilts than any other Guild and often donate the top money earner. Next year we will have competition from the Quilter's Guild of Dallas, Inc. They have a new TAQG Rep, our own Donna Petrick, who is a force to be reckoned with.

MEMBERSHIP—DOLORES WILLIAMS

Did you survive the show? Now that the show is over and we can think about other things, it is time to renew your membership! Membership will only be printing pages for members that have had changes in their information last year. If you did not get your picture taken yet, please try to do so before the October meeting. We want to get as many pictures in the directory as we can. It really helps to put a face to a name when talking about guild members. We will have a cameraman present at the September meeting.

GENERAL MEETING MINUTES—AUGUST 8—JULIE SCHAEFER

Guild President, MJ Fielek called the meeting of the Quilters Guild of Plano, Inc. to order at 7:00 p.m. at the Plano Centre. This was the evening for previewing the quilts prior to the Quilt Plano 13 Quilt Show. Members and their families were welcomed along with any volunteers that were present after helping setup the show. The minutes and treasurer's report of June 13th were approved as published in the July newsletter. The next general meeting will be on September 12th at Parkway Hills Baptist Church.

OLD BUSINESS:

As the chair of the nominating committee, Suzy Boyle read the projected slate of officers for the year 2013-14. Those nominated are: President—Dolores Williams, VP Community Service—Terri Mendelow, VP Education—Lyn Jennings, VP Guild Activities—Linda Neal, VP Media—Mickie Warrington, VP Membership—Donna Petrick and Kemberly Wilshire, VP Programs—Kaye Dunn and Sherry Worley, Secretary—Leslie Leathers and Marty Crouch, VP Finance—MJ Fielek and Quilt Plano 2014 Show Chair—Pam Walsh. Members were reminded that there would be a paper ballot at the September 12th general meeting.

MJ reminded members of their commitments for working the Show. Quilt Angels were needed in the PM for both Friday and Saturday.

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

Door Prizes: Prizes were awarded to the members that had a sticker on the back of the ticket they were given upon entering. The 11 door prizes were donated by the following: Minding My P's & Q's—Denton, Quilters Connection—Dallas, Quilt Country—Lewisville, Alford Inn Quilt Shoppe—Van Alstyene, The Quilt Asylum—McKinney, Quilt Ideas—Plano, Blue Ribbon Quilt Shoppe—Wylie, Stitched With Love—McKinney, Sew Lets Quilt It—Dallas and two from members of the Quilters Guild of Plano.

Quilt Plano 2013: Pam Walsh, next year's Show Chair, exhibited the Raffle Quilt for 2014. The following people pieced the quilt: Pam Walsh, Sally Hamilton, Janet Carver, Lynne Fritsche and Sharon Schenke. Kathy Bradbury did the quilting.

Kemberly Wilshire gave the following youngsters this year's charm for helping out in a crises: Shelby and Victoria Wilshire, Lynette and Rachel Dalley, and last but not least, Emma Guillen. All members were reminded that they needed to fill out the "Member Award" ballot.

Cynthia Weisz announced the winners of the auctioned mini quilts. First place winner was Ileana Salzer receiving $35.00. Cynthia Weisz was second place and received $25.00. Third place was Paula Washler receiving $15.00. The honorable mention award along with a gift certificate awarded to Rose Clair Fletcher.

MJ requested that members read the upcoming newsletter for further committee reports.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:15 p.m.

QUILT PLANO 2013—VIEWER'S CHOICE WINNER

Melissa Sobotka's "Chihuly's Gondola" won Best of Show, Mayor's Choice, Blue Ribbon for the Art Category, and Viewer's Choice. Congratulations Melissa from Quilt Plano 2013. This was the best quilt show ever.

Onward and upward to Quilt Plano 2014 August 15-16, 2014. Take the challenge to be a winner or just a participant.
