

Quilters Guild of Plano, Inc.

OCTOBER 2013

VOLUME 31, ISSUE 10

THE PRESIDENT SAYS

How do I start my last letter to the Guild as president? I guess just saying THANK YOU is a good place to start. To all of you who have stepped forward and accepted roles in the guild a special thanks.

The one thing that I wanted to accomplish as President of the Guild was to make it a friendlier guild. I hope you will think of our guild as friendly. If you have not attended the, "Have a Cup Friday," I suggest that you give it a try.

It has been a good two years being President, I would suggest that you get involved with the guild and also accept a position on a committee or the board. This is a sure way to make new friends for life.

You will still see me at meetings and other guild functions.

MJ Fielek, President

COMMUNITY SERVICE— TERRI MENDELOW

I want to thank Donna Petrick, Carol Long, and Pat Wiant for filling in for me at the September meeting. I was recuperating from knee surgery. This is just an example of how it takes many folks to get the job done and make our guild a success.

In late September we donated quilts and afghans to our major agencies, Collin County Children's Advocacy Center, The Turning Point Rape Crisis Center, and My Friend's House. These agencies greatly appreciate the donation quilts and afghans from our guild. Thanks to all of you who give your time, talent and supplies for our donations. Keep in mind that these donations are a way to educate the public about quilting. Let's make sure to give them our best effort so that each quilt we donate represents the great quality of our guild.

The October Sit & Sew will be on Tuesday, the 8th at Plano Sewing Center at Spring Creek and Custer Road. We meet from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. but you may come and go as your schedule allows. Precut kits are available to sew or you can iron if you prefer. For sewing, bring your sewing machine and sewing supplies. Please contact Karen Christoffer to let her know you plan to attend. Her email is karen.christoffer@tx.rr.com.

Please continue to record any time you spend doing work for the guild in the Service Hours log. These hours make you eligible for Guild recognition and for the President's Volunteer Award. The log is at the community service table or you can email Julie Schaefer at juliescha@sbcglobal.net. Include your travel time to and from any event that you work for the guild.

Again, thank you for your support for Community Service and the Guild.

MEDIA— MICKIE WARRINGTON

Welcome to the Media column for the month of October. Since the primary purpose of our Guild is education, we're going to tour the Internet this month to see how to find some great education experiences that are available. I chose the Collin County shops to illustrate the variety of classes that are offered since our Guild is in Collin County!

If you make our Guild website your "home base" while doing your searching, just click the "Links" tab from the you menu bar and select "Local Area Quilt Shops". The address and a link to the shop's website are all included on this page.

For my search, I viewed the websites for Fabric Fanatics, Happiness is Quilting, Quilt Asylum, The Texas Quilter, Blue Ribbon Quilt Shop, and Stitched with Love. Next I clicked their "Classes" tab to see what was available. Of course, being Collin County, I also checked out the Upcoming Events page on the Guild website!

I found a great variety of national and local instructors including Jacqueline De Jonge, Kathy Dunigan, Sally Ashbacher, Sharon Wilhelm, and many more. Classes are offered based on traditional quilting, appliqué, patterns designed by the instructor, a mystery, and many more. The techniques classes are from beginning to advanced to free-motion quilting. I even discovered a few DVD classes offered for art quilting and sketchline appliqué. Can you find these classes in the shops I mentioned?

Enjoy your Internet browsing!

EDUCATION NEWS— MARGARET SCHAFER

This will be my last article as your Vice President of Education. I want to take this opportunity to thank you for all the wonderful help and support you have given me since I became a vice president in January of 2012, and before that as I served as your Education Committee Chairperson for several years. Our education program has grown exponentially through these years, and it is directly attributable to your help and support. We now have a Junior Quilting Group, so we are planting seeds for the future of quilting, and we continue to support the programs at the International Quilt Festival and our annual Quilt Plano shows by encouraging children to learn the art of quilting-related skills. We have helped a 4-H Club to design and make an award winning quilt, and we have done several programs for senior adult groups. We also support an Early Childhood program within PISD, have a Sew Happy Quilters group at the Plano Senior Center, and have developed and given other programs for adults and children in our area. Our Service Learning Group at the high school and college level continues under the guidance of LaDawn Dalley.

Many thanks go to LaDawn for her work and also to Shirley Weaver, Debbie Skorepa, and Suzy Boyle for their roles as Education Committee Chairpersons. Unfortunately Shirley has moved out of state and Debbie has resigned due to work schedule conflicts, so we are looking for new chairperson in those areas. It is my sincere hope that you will continue your support to our new Vice President of Education, Lyn Jennings, and that our educational programs within the guild will continue to grow and develop. I would love to see us gain the reputation of the best educational guild in our area. Our free quilting-related demonstrations at Quilt Plano 2012 and 2013 certainly helped to boost that image.

Program reminders for this month are the Junior Quilting Group's meeting on Saturday, September 21 at 10 o'clock at the Texas Quilter, and the Plano International Festival on Saturday, October 5. We participate in the Festival every year to teach children how to make crayon squares and redwork squares for children's donation quilts. Of course, if they wish, they may take the square home with them. We usually see over 150 children throughout the day. The Festival will be held from 11:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. in Haggard Park on 15th Street just West of Historic Downtown Plano.

We still need quite a few volunteers, especially in the afternoon for the Festival, so contact the new Education VP and volunteer.

Thank you again for all your help, and let's keep up the good work!

QUILT PLANO 2013 FINANCIALS— DONNA PETRICK

The monthly cash flow statement shows you how much money came in and went out for the month of August. But it really doesn't give you a good idea of what the show actually made and cost. I'm very happy to tell you that this show is what we wanted when we decided to go to an annual show. The total revenue for the show was $48,599.31 with expenses of $32,450.44, leaving us a profit of $16,148.87. This was $4,000.00 more than we had budgeted to profit from the show. Congratulations to all of you who worked so hard this year to make the show so successful and especially to Kemberly Wilshire for her dedication for several years to get the quilt show to this level.

HELP WANTED—DONNA PETRICK

As we get ready to start the new fiscal year with new officers, we find some committee jobs still need to be filled. For membership, one job to fill is Door Prizes. I need someone who can help me go to the different quilt shops to pick up the door prizes they give us. I'll contact the shops to get approval, but need help picking up the prizes. Most shops give us several months' worth of prizes each time so it isn't a monthly travel trip.

Another committee job for membership that needs help is Hospitality. Linda Neal has agreed to stay on, but we need another person to help show new members and visitors around the meeting and introduce them to other members. You don't have to know everyone yourself. It's a great way to meet the membership.
