The President Says ...

Happy New Year! Do you make resolutions? What about quilting resolutions? Do you find, like me, that you make the same ones every year?!

The idea of making a list of quilts you hope to finish feels uplifting and can motivate you into action, assuming life doesn't get in the way. I usually do better when I set a deadline which is why wedding and baby quilts usually get done before other projects not tied to a date, but what if it's just for me? Setting a deadline can take the enjoyment out of it altogether and the last thing I want to do is dread working on a project or feel like it's an obligation!

So maybe the approach to resolutions is to revise my list and put them into different categories – things I hope to accomplish (no deadline), things I intend to accomplish (flexible deadline), and things I have to make happen (deadline). So my resolution this year is to revise my list and time will tell what actually gets accomplished!

Programs

First, and most important, remember that starting with our January program, we will meet at the Hunters Glen Baptist Church at 4100 Custer Road in Plano. (See map on page 10.)

On January 12, Trish Stuart will be our speaker, discussing Color Theory.

There are two workshops available. The workshops cost $35 each. Both workshops will be held at Collin Creek Mall at US 75 and Plano Parkway. (See maps on pages 8 and 10.)

Freedom in Motion Workshop – 1/12/17

The project is wool appliqué on a linen foundation, backed and bordered with burlap. Learn free motion stitching by machine in this workshop.

The nature of this design actually begs to have those little odd jumps in stitching that happen when you first try to coordinate the movement of your hands, feet and needle speed. You gradually learn to create smoothly beautiful, consistent stitching. Class time is spent learning free motion.

January 2017

Curves Made Easy Workshop – 1/13/17

If you have always thought that curves and long, narrow, sharp points were too difficult to sew, you need to learn this fabulously simple way to sew perfect curves every single time.

You won't have to deal with lumps, bubbles, holes where you snipped too far, warping, whether or not you have a perfect 1/4" seam, or grain lines!

In this workshop we begin with a walk through the steps on how to take your own design or favorite photo and translate it into a line drawing suitable for creating your masterpiece in fabric.

February Program and Workshop

On February 9, Suzi Parron will be our speaker, discussing Barn Quilts and the American Quilt Trail Movement.

There is a workshop available on February 11 on Barn Quilt Painting.

March Program

On March 9, Lisa Erlandson will be our speaker, discussing Making Your Best Quilt.

Guild Activities

submitted by Janet Plotkin

Welcome Quilters, 2017 is well under way, some of us may have already broken a resolution or two. On the topic of resolutions, many of my real and online friends are choosing their word of the year; a single word to focus on and work to perfect. If I am honest, mine is the same every year, Patience. She is the chiding Aunt in the corner pointing out my distinct lack of patience. If you are electing a focus word, I wish you the best. But, watch out for Patience, she is a cranky one!

Retreat is a month away and my impatience is already mounting. Retreat is such a special time. I cherish the luxury of time to visit with those friends I see weekly, and monthly, but more importantly to reconnect with those friends I see only annually.

If you have never been on a retreat, please give it some thought. Hilton Garden Inn is a lovely venue, with comfy rooms, lots of well lit sewing space, and yummy food!

For those of you who are going, please be sure to bring the rest of your unpaid fees to the meeting, the retreat coordinator has to pay the balance of retreat costs the day after the meeting.

We still need a small group, a couple of friends, or an individual who wants to take over the reins of retreat planning. This is a fun job, and you will have lots of help.

Don't forget we are meeting at our new location, and the Guild Activity for the month is to bring a friend, a past member, or even a random stranger you meet in a Quilt Shop. Stop by the Guild Activities table with your guest and you will each get a coveted, and much envied, gold star.

And while you are in that quilt shop remember to pick up your Polka Dot Fabric for the "One-Yard Rip Off" in February. You will need one yard of fabric and a pair of snips for the meeting; you will be sharing this fabric. If you need a yard for your very own self, please buy two, one to keep and one to rip off. This is a quick, fun activity and the twist will be announced in the next newsletter. Whew, that gives me another month to think of it.

Looking toward spring, I think we may go live and stringy!

I want to thank the people who sent me messages about Guild Activities. I really appreciate the feedback. If anyone has a suggestion, idea, crazy thought, for an activity you think the Guild would enjoy, please email me: janet@frogbutt.net.

And I want to thank all 35 of the Guild members who participated in the Ornament exchange. I hope your new ornament graced a special place in your home, my little mitten ornament certainly did.

I am wishing for you all a New Year of health, prosperity, happiness, and many pleasant hours behind the wheel of your sewing machine. And Patience, she sends her wishes too, for those that need it.

stash insulates my sewing room.

Membership

submitted by Diana Florence and Jeanne Vogel

It's a New Year and a new beginning in a new church meeting room filled with lots of new (and old) members. Look for the new sign to signal to turn into the new parking area close to the new South Entrance doors with the new purple balloons. The board members might also be wearing something new!

New to the Membership table is Donna Strongin, taking over Hospitality/ Welcome to the new members.

New business cards are being printed along with new bookmarks with the speakers coming in 2017 at the new location:

Hunters Glen Baptist Church

4001 Custer Rd. Plano

South Entrance Fellowship Hall

We have been busy reviewing the membership update forms submitted by the guild members. Those with definite interests have been given to the committee vice-president or chairs. Here's an example of the following programs and/or teachers that were requested by some members: Sherri Lyn Wood - Improv Quilting, Pat Sloan, Bonnie Hunter, Deb Tucker, United Notions - Moda Tour, thread painting, free motion quilting, surface design techniques, modern quilting, art quilting, felting and reproduction quilts.

Members interested in working with the Quilt Show were given to the quilt show chair and those wanting to be in small group were sent to the Beekeeper. Interests in Guild Activities, Community Service, 9-patch and Christmas Stockings were sent to those leaders.

Two of our guild members have been winners! We are excited to announce that Sally Hamilton is the winner of 20% off every purchase in 2017 at the Rockin Bobbin Quilt Shop in Dallas and Bri Loftis won the December free gift from Stitched with Love in McKinney.

Happy New Year!

TAQG News

submitted by Sherry Worley

The January TAQG meeting takes us to Mineola on Saturday, January 28. The Special Interest meetings are Presidents, Secretaries, and Treasurers. The meetings will start at 10:00am at The Mineola League of the Arts. A survey for each meeting will be available no later than January 1, 2017.

Community Service

submitted by LaDawn Dalley

Another great month for Community Service! I was able to deliver 19 quilts to the Collin County Children's Advocacy Center, 9 quilts to The Turning Point Rape Crisis Center, and 18 quilts to My Friend's House. I also took 11 quilts and about $200 worth of other baby supplies to the PISD school age parent program, thanks to your generosity in November.

I wanted to put in a plug for our Saturday community service sewing group. It meets at Not Your Mama's Quilt Shop on the fourth Saturday of the month, (check the website for exact date and time). I've been able to go a few times and have had a great time. We've been working on house blocks which will eventually go into a quilt or quilts for The Turning Point.

May I offer a suggestion for your New Year? How about setting a goal to complete one quilt a month for Community Service? Depending on your time and abilities, that could mean from start to finish, or just sewing the binding on one from the community service table. Or maybe just try to attend to one of our community sew days each month; besides doing good, you will get the opportunity to know some really wonderful women!

See you at Guild! Stop by my table and talk to me!

Calling All Junior Quilters!

Since we only had one student interested in the Junior Quilting Group, I'm extending the enrollment period so if you know of a Junior Quilter – there's still time! Classes are open to junior quilters ages 8-12 and meet monthly, the 2nd Saturday of the month. Each class builds on the skills presented in the previous class. The first class reviews machine operations and sewing techniques. Creativity is encouraged to build confidence in skills and techniques. Completed quilts are displayed in the next year's Plano Quilt Show.

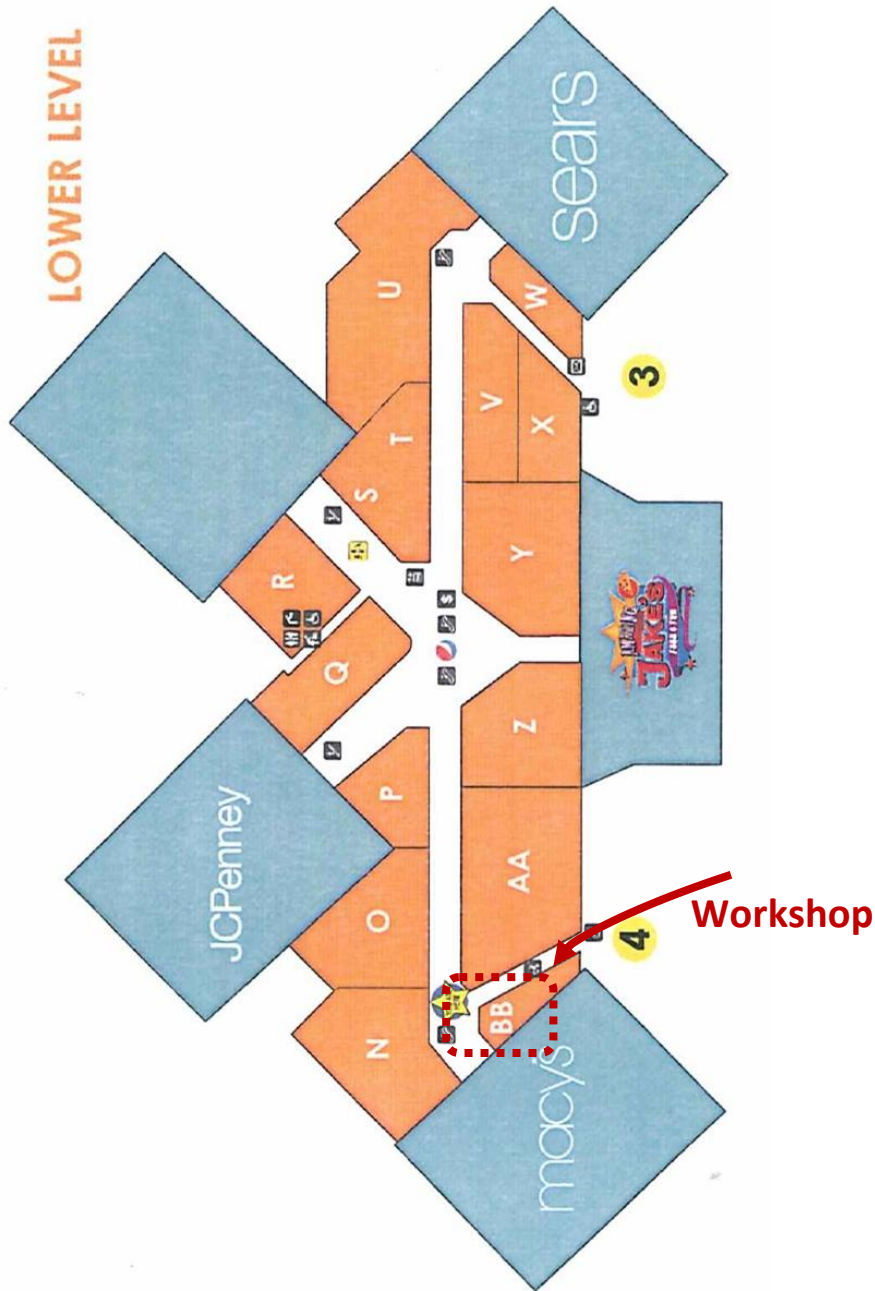

If you know of someone interested in joining the group, or if you're interested in teaching or helping out with the classes, please contact Pam Wingate at pam.wingate@tx.rr.com.

Quilt Plano 2017

submitted by Rose Davis

Wow! 2017 is here and plans are moving ahead full force — 8 short months to show time. Quilt Plano 2017 is scheduled for Friday and Saturday, August 11 & 12, 2017. We do have a few spots still open on the Show Committee — Publicity, Door Prizes and Co-show Chair. I am hoping to have these filled by our first show committee meeting in January. Here is a sneak preview of the Show's logo and photo that will be used in the Promotional pieces.

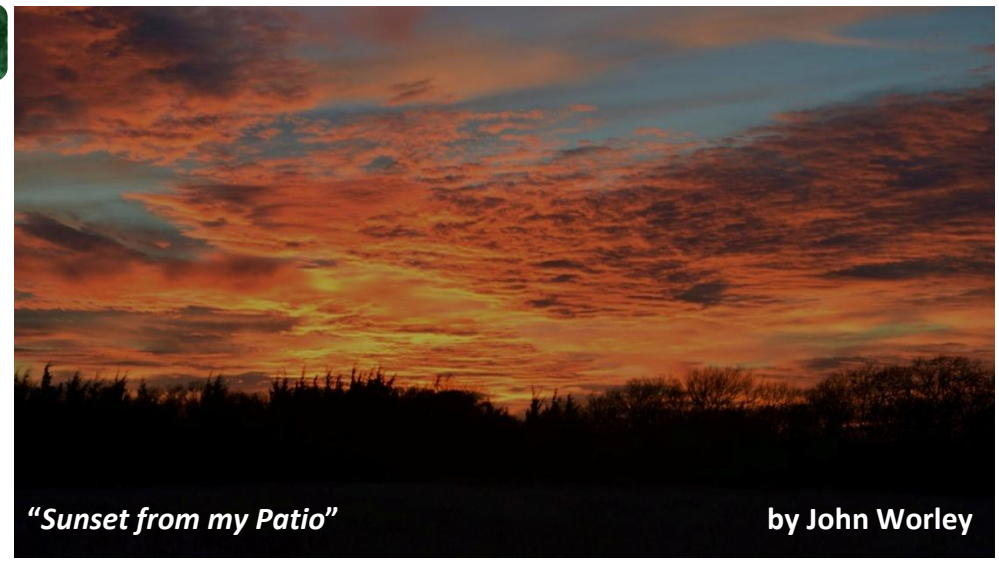

If you are thinking about things that need to be done in the New Year — here's a few things to think about:

1. Decide on the area you want to volunteer for the upcoming show.
2. Work on those special quilts so they will be ready to enter them in the show.
3. Don't forget to save time to make one (or more) mini quilts to include in the mini-quilt auction.
4. Share the 2017 show dates with all your friends so we can make sure and have a great turn out.

I hope you all had a wonderful holiday season!!! I'm looking forward to being your Show Chair for 2017. See you in January!

General Meeting Minutes

December 8, 2016

submitted by Denise Green

Parkway Hills Baptist Church, Plano, TX

Pres. Pam Wingate called the meeting to order at 6:50pm with 42 members present. The Minutes and the Treasurer's report were approved as published.

Pam handed out a Lone Star Award to Martha Diehl with the BFF small group, in appreciation for her work on Quilting for Others sewing day. Donna Petrick received a Lone Star Award for her many years of service to QGP, serving as a member of the board and an officer. John and Sherry Worley each received a Lone Star Award for their many years of service to QGP.

Erica Stanley, Director of the Children's Advocacy Center of Collin County, spoke to us about the thousands of children served last year. The quilts we provide them are given to children that have been removed from their homes. We provide 20 per month, and they use 75 to 100 blankets & quilts per month. CAC provides a safe and healing location for children in need.

Community Service, LaDawn Dalley reported on the ongoing need for our service and community quilting efforts. We turned in over 1,000 Christmas stockings that went to Soldiers Angels. We will participate in this program next year.

Donna Petrick reported that February Retreat payments are due at our January meeting. She has the service pins and bars for those who have earned them.

Kaye Dunn & Valerie Salter reported on the mini quilt program and encouraged everyone to participate.

Sherry Worley reported on the birthday quilt program and reported there will be a drawing in January.

Beekeeper, Martha Diehl reported on three new groups being formed. Anyone interested in joining a small group should contact her.

Membership, Diana Florence reported membership cards were being mailed.

Programs, Dena Smith reported on the reduction in the workshop prices. They are now $35.00 per workshop. The Jan workshops still have space available, and they will be held at Collin Creek Mall. The workshop registration fee does not cover any supplies or kit fees. If you have over-paid for a workshop, a refund will be coming.

Activities, Janet Plotkin reported on the St. Mary's "Red, White and Blue-tiful" quilt show in Plantersville, TX. This is a show for quilt guilds to partner with them, entering 15 quilts. This is a non-judged show. While most of the quilts will be displayed inside the church, there will also be an outdoor viewing area (weather proof and secured) scheduled for April 28-29, 2017.

February Retreat, Be sure to bring 1 yard of polka dot fabric for a rip-off. Hosts are needed for the 2018 retreat.

In January (next month) we will begin meeting at the Hunters Glen Baptist Church. This new location will require much less walking and no steps for access to the meeting room. It is on the west side of Custer Road between Spring Creek and Parker.

Winners of the poinsettias were Denise Green and Teri Reisinger. We had great Show and Tell of Christmas quilts from multiple members.

The Christmas Ornament Exchange was a tremendous success. Thirty-five quilters gave and received a handmade Christmas ornament. The members were playing another game when this secretary had to head for her far away home.

Wishing all a safe and happy holiday season.

Board of Directors Meeting Minutes

December 5, 2016

submitted by Denise Green

Tino's Too, Plano

Called to order by President Pam Wingate. In attendance were:

Pam Wingate, Jane Schwarz, Dena Smith, Jeanne Vogel, Chandra Smith, LaDawn Dalley, Diana Florence, Denise Green, Sherry Worley, and John Worley

Minutes were approved as published. Treasurer's report also approved as published.

Pam led a discussion on the need for a committee to lead our philanthropic endeavors. Jeanne Vogel volunteered to chair this committee and Jane Schwarz agreed to assist. It was agreed to compile a list of suggested recipients to be presented to the membership, and ask for further suggestions, before voting on the final recipients, and the amounts to be given. We will also give a quarterly donation to Hunters Glen Baptist Church where we will be meeting in 2017.

Treasurer Jane Schwarz reminded everyone we do have an approved budget. Please be sure any expenses you or your committee incurs are within your budget and all committee chairs should sign off on each expenditure. Chanda Smith, treasurer and Jane, VP Finance are planning to "tag-team" on all of the financial activities, keeping everything current and transparent.

Christmas Party - all plans are in order. Dena will pick up the plants that will be used for decorations and then given away as door prizes. QGP will provide 4 cases of bottled water as well as plates, napkins etc. We will include a Show & Tell of Christmas quilts.

Rose Davis has ordered new business cards for QGP.

Membership Jeanne showed new fabric name badges which are being made for our officers. She also showed new signs with arrows that we can use outside of our meeting places to help direct members to the right location, pending review of city of Plano ordinances.

Programs Dena updated us on our upcoming workshops and monthly programs. The February workshop has 26 people enrolled. The instructor is willing to do a second workshop if it is needed.

Community Service LaDawn reported problems finding a source for more quilt labels. Pam is going to ask her husband to find a source. It was suggested we have a quick Snow & Tell of the donated quilts at each meeting.

Education Kena is working a lot of overtime right now, but after the first of the year she will be able to devote more time to the quilt show demonstrations. Her co-chair is Sara Lindsay

Quilt Show Rose is still in need of a co-chair as well as someone to chair publicity and door prizes. She has the logo done and the color pallete selected.

TAQG Sherry reported there will be a meeting on Sat 28 Jan 2017 in Mineola, TX from 10-12. There are nice quilt shops in town and great eating places....could be a fun day!

Pam reported there had been an inquiry about someone wanting to donate an old serger to us. We will accept it and try to use it on the baby blankets.

Pam adjourned the meeting at 7:40.
