July – Different Meeting Location

The construction on the fellowship hall at Hunter's Glen has begun. Also Vacation Bible School is in session there. They cannot accommodate us this month. We are going to have the guild meeting at the Best Little Retreat Center in Texas this month. It is located in the Shopping Center on the North-West corner of Coit and Beltline. (This is where the Workshops are held.)

July Meeting Location

The President Says ...

It's summer! And you know what that means....Quilt Plano is quickly approaching. We had a record number of quilts submitted for the show and final preparations are being made. It's promising to bePr another great year for Quilt Plano, but we need your help! I know many of you have already signed up to work a shift, but we still need people for setup and takedown. I will be heading up this sub-committee and it's great because you get to work before the show and get to see all the quilts before anyone else! It's really fun to see the show come to life. So let me know if you're interested in working with me before or after the show, or sign up during the July Guild Meeting.

Pam Wingate,
Guild President

Programs

Our July meeting will feature a lecture from MJ Fielek.

MJ Fielek has been sewing since she was quite young. She taught sewing and tailoring at Eastfield College and "Sewing with Knits" at Richardson High School. Her love turned to quilting in 1979 when she drafted and made her first quilt. Over the years MJ has made hundreds of quilts. She entered and was accepted in the Houston IQA show and won 2nd place in the 2-person category. She has even traveled to Europe to the International Quilt Expo and taken classes from many European teachers. MJ teaches beginners classes, a tips and techniques class, binding and advanced classes such as Double Wedding Ring, Feathered Star and Lone Star.

MJ's July lecture will be Beautiful Quilts Out of Simple Shapes. This program will show quilts that are made from simple blocks. We seem to forget what great quilts can be made from simple blocks. Four patch, nine patch and half square triangles are easy to make and make beautiful quilts. These shapes also make beautiful borders on appliqué quilts. The lecture will include a trunk show of these quilts.

Note: There will be no workshops this month so members can attend Rally Day, Saturday, July 8th in Mesquite.

Trash to Treasure Sale

School's out! That means more sewing time, right?? Please consider using some of your time for community service quilts. Or Christmas Stockings! We had kits available at the June meeting, and will have them available again in July. Or, you can find the instructions on the Guild website.

Save the date! September 18, we will be holding another Quilting for Others Day. This year, there will be no basting. All the quilts will be ready for quilting. This is a great opportunity for practicing your quilting skills, not to mention that it is just plain fun! Please plan to join us!

Quilt Plano 2017

A special thank you to those that helped pick up the slack at our June Guild meeting, especially Donna Petrick and Pam Crocker, while I was recovering from Cataract surgery.

I can't believe that we are just 2 months away from Quilt Plano 2017. Judged entries closed with a total of 274 quilts – that is the largest participation in quite a while. Everything else is falling into place and we are on track to present a great show.

But we still need your help. If you haven't signed up to volunteer at the show you still have time – we will have one more Guild meeting where you can sign up to work, pre-order show shirts and purchase lunches for Show Days. Please keep in mind that purchasing lunches help the Guild as well. Part of our rental agreement with Plano Event Center is a food guarantee. The lunches you purchase go towards that guaranteed amount, so please pre-order lunches or purchase your food from the snack bar whenever possible.

For those that are new to our Show, Preview Night is a “Member-Only” sneak preview starting at 6:15 on Thursday, August 10th. After a brief guild meeting, we will open the show doors so members have the first opportunity to see the judged quilts.

Dates to remember:

Tuesday, June 27 at 6:30 – Show Committee Meeting at Best Little Retreat Center.

Tuesday, July 25 at 6:30 – Show Committee Meeting at Best Little Retreat Center

Tuesday, August 8th from 8am-1pm – Quilt drop off at the Plano Event Center.

Thursday, August 10 at 6:15 – Quilt Plano 2017 Preview Night

Friday and Saturday, August 11 & 12th – Quilt Plano 2017

If you are still trying to figure out how to help at the Show, feel free to contact me at

Special Exhibits/Quilt Plano 2017

submitted by Jeanne Smith

For me, as co-chair of Special Exhibits, this year is very exciting with multiple displays of outstanding quilting. The following is what will be included in the Special Exhibits' section.

We are highlighting a guild member and some of her wonderful quilts. Hopefully, this will be a show tradition of highlighting one of our guild members. This year we are pleased to announce that MJ Fielek is our featured quilter!

Our judges have graciously agreed to display one of their quilts.

We will have beautiful examples of several workshops.

Pat Wiant's step-mother-in-law, Gertie Wiant, is sharing with us her exquisite embroidered blocks which Pat has lovingly made into small quilts.

Our guild's group challenge of the Polka Dot "One-Yard Rip Off" led by Janet Plotkin is included.

We have two small groups displaying their challenges. One group features a fabric exchange where each member used a different setting of the Texas Two-Step as presented by Lynn Roddy Brown in her October workshop. The other group took part in a 12 month, 6" block pattern exchange where fabric and setting were up to each participant.

The Art Quilters of Plano, as always, will delight us with their display of ingenious projects.

Enjoy the show!

Guild Activities

Visiting, drowning, and gratitude:

submitted by Janet Plotkin

I sure need a guest columnist this month. Any takers? I suppose it is too late to ask when you are already past the deadline. I want you to know, I am grateful for the opportunity to write this message each month. I am grateful to belong to a swell guild. And I am super grateful to have "quilting" in my life.

The "quilting" I refer to is the amazing friends, the wonderful support and encouragement, the occasional necessary criticism, a shoulder to cry on, an ear to bend, a hand to hold, and yes, sometimes some stitching.

I was privileged this month to speak to the Midland Quilt Guild and I got to see gratitude in action. They are an aging Guild and have been split into the original daytime and more recent evening group. I was the last speaker for both. In July they are merging into a single evening Guild. They were a remarkably vibrant, charming, engaged group of women who are supportive of each other and their community. They make table mats for the Meals on Wheels to deliver with the Thanksgiving Dinner delivery; what a great way to brighten a day. They were arranging a pool of drivers to bring the daytime members who cannot drive at night. They were writing thank you notes to the local Art Guild for the financial support they have received. And they were celebrating the lives of 5 of their members who had passed in the last month. While they mourned the loss, they also embraced the joy of lives well lived.

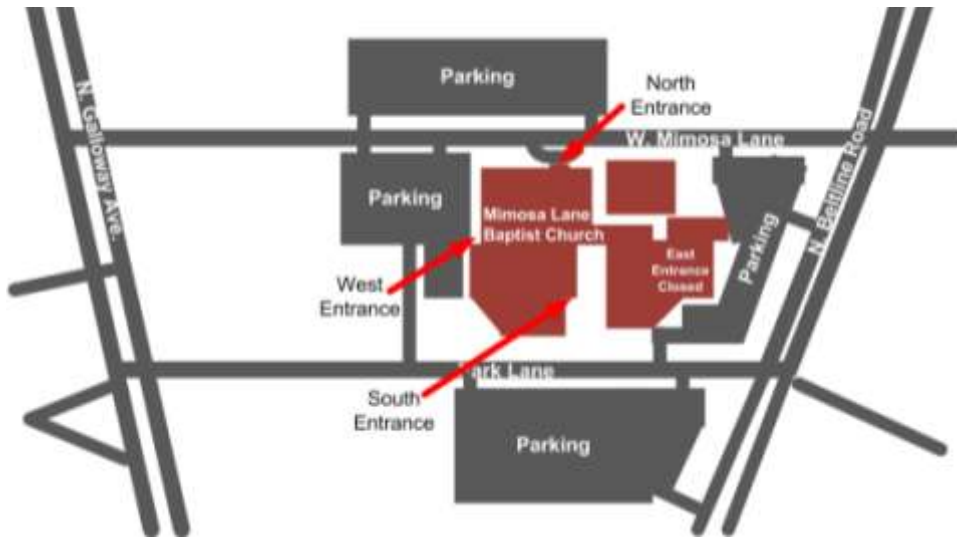

At QGP we certainly have a lot to be grateful for. Our upcoming show, and all the volunteers who make it possible. The stunning number of quilts passed along to deserving charitable organizations. A small dedicated team of people committed to the stocking project. National and local speakers, old and new friends, show and tell, workshops, small groups, and a Board committed to making it all continue into the future.

Every one of us is on a journey toward, through, or away from something and as we travel this life we need to remember to be kind to each other and ourselves and most of all remember to be grateful. Thanks for letting me ramble.

In July, please remember to bring a friend to the Guild meeting and pick up your starfish charms for being a QGP Star!

I will also collect any POLKA DOT challenge items you need to drop off early because you will not be dropping off show items at the Plano Center. If you are going to deliver show items to the Plano Center please bring your POLKA DOT challenge items to drop off too.

Our next QGP DAY RETREAT is August 6, 7, and 8. This is the last weekend before the show making it the perfect retreat to finish up those show quilts, put on sleeves using the big tables, and add your labels. Retreat begins at 10am Friday, 9am Saturday and Sunday. You can sew until 11pm on Friday and Saturday and we pack up by 4pm on Sunday. The cost is $40 for all three days. Email me to put your name on the list, janet@frogbutt.net. And check out the Dallas Quilters Marathon Facebook page for all the Day Retreat details.

General Meeting Minutes

June 8, 2017

Hunters Glen Baptist Church, Plano, TX

President Pam Wingate called the meeting to order at 6:50 PM. There being no corrections or additions to the minutes as distributed, they were approved. The Treasurer, Chanda Smith's report was also approved as published.

Pam asked Donna Petrick to present the President's Awards for hours of service to the membership. We had several Bronze (100-250 hrs), Silver (251-499 hrs) and Gold (500 hrs & up) Awards. The two "Lifetime" awards were presented to Pam Welsh and Donna Petrick. Congratulations to the recipients and Thank You for their hours of service!

Dolores Williams gave a request for more volunteers at the upcoming quilt show. Especially needed are security, set-up and tear-down volunteers.

Donna Petrick reported the nominating committee had only one vacancy left. We need a volunteer to be our next V-P of Education. We also need a new Beekeeper and door prize chair. Donna also reported she will be selling show shirts and raffle tickets at the back of the room tonight.

Valerie Salter had a plentitude of mini quilts turned in tonight and showed them to the membership. Debbie Sehrer received the drawing for mini quilt participants.

An announcement was made that Christmas stocking kits available for pickup tonight, there are 5 per bag, take as many as you want. Please turn them in by November.

Co-chair of the Quilt Plano 2017, Pam Crocker reported vender slots at the show are all full. It is still possible to purchase lunches for the show and order your show shirts with bling or without bling. Julie Shaefer reported Aggie Meszaros has resigned her position as Quilt Angel coordinator due to family health issues. M J Fielek volunteered to fulfill the position.

V-P Community Service, LaDawn Dalley reported 13 quilts delivered to the Rape Crisis Center and 25 quilts to My Friends House. Monica Hendewerk announced the next Quilt Day for Community Service will be Sept 18th from 9 AM to 5 PM. at the Dallas Game Center. The goal is to quilt 150 in one day! There will be a few people that may be needed to baste, iron or sew on that day. You will be free to practice whatever quilt style you choose.

V-P Guild Activities, Janet Plotkin reported 20 participants at the last Day Retreat. The next Day Retreat will be August 4, 5, & 6 at the Dallas Games Center.

Janet requested everyone who participated in the "Polka Dot Challenge" bring their items to the Quilt Show drop off so they can be displayed. (be sure you name is on your project.) Janet will have the Starfish pins for members who bring a guest at our next meeting.

TAQG president, Sherry Worley reported on the July 8th Rally Day. She also reported on a discount for those who sign up for a second workshop tonight and for those signing up for both workshops tonight.

V-P Programs, Dena Smith reported space still available at our workshops this Friday and Saturday. She also reported the speaker lineup for the balance of the year.

V-Ps Membership Jeanne Vogel and Diana Florence reported 77 in attendance tonight. Including 4 visitors, 5 new members, and 68 current members. They also reported there will be a remodeling of our current meeting room taking place this summer. We will still meet at this church, but it will be in a different area, so watch our newsletter for more information. Gift Certificates and Grab Bags were awarded as door prizes.

We were all rewarded with a delightful Show N Tell.

We then took a 10 minute break before Pam called us to order. Dolores Williams announced the prize winner for the volunteer signup was Joann Hancock. Sherry Worley announced she needed volunteers to sign up to sell raffle quilt tickets at Rally Day.

Deana Smith introduced our guest speaker, Alice Kolb from the Texas hill country. She shared many delightful stories of quilting and/or stitching and reminded us of our connection to our craft's history and our nation's history and the changes that have occurred within our craft.

Respectfully submitted,

Denise Green, Secretary
