Feb. 8, 2018 - Quilt as Desired, What Do I Desire?

Judy Steward

Judy is a quilt artist who also loves to teach others about quilting and making their dream a reality. It is exciting to see their eyes light up in that moment when they realize they too can make their creation come alive under her guidance. Fabric, color, and texture inspire her as a quilt artist.

Art first captured Judy's heart at a young age. Her childhood included wonderful opportunities to make cornhusk dolls, decorate cakes, sew garments, refinish furniture and many other creative pastimes. It was fun to dream up ideas to create something unique and beautiful.

When she started quilting there were no quilt shops in the area nor rotary cutters, rulers or cutting mats. Judy made quilts in the footsteps of her ancestors by hand piecing, hand appliquéing, and hand quilting. To make squares for a quilt, she traced around a piece of cardboard and then cut it out with scissors. It was time consuming and inaccurate, but she found joy in working with fabric and putting colors and textures together to create art. Each traditional quilt that she made has helped her learn skills and techniques to use to make her art quilts.

Sometimes a quilt stumps us or we don't have enough experience to know what a design will look like in an area of our quilts. Judy's trunk show displays her quilts that show the choices she made and how they do or don't work as well as other options.

Upcoming Workshops

Our next workshops are with
Kathy Dunigan April 13-14

Sign up Today!

Friday, April 13 – Broderie Perse workshop

Broderie perse, or Persian embroidery, is not actually embroidery at all, but appliqué. The motifs were carefully cut out and then stitched to the background fabric by either turning the edges under before stitching invisibly, or with a tiny, hand-worked blanket stitch – the forerunner of today's raw-edge appliqué.

Sometimes the motifs were appliquéd straight onto the background fabric, and at other times some form of paste was used to fuse the pieces to a stretched background, allowed to dry, and then stitched.

Learn this traditional appliqué style using modern techniques from the appliqué master.

Saturday, April 14 – Baltimore Basket of Roses workshop

Spend a day with Kathy and let her guide you as you make the loveliest of blocks. This breathtaking block can take center stage in a wall hanging or be set it into a Baltimore Album that you have started or are thinking of beginning. In this jam-packed technique class will include padded and embroidered appliqué and you will be able to try different methods for your stems and basket. We will even use the prepared edge technique with a paper foundation that turns to fabric and is left inside! A bit of reverse appliqué; just the right amount to make this block fun and Kathy will show you how to ribbon weave the basket if you desire. The two birds flit overhead and just wait for a fabulous, fancy print to make them soar. Don't miss this exciting class!

From the Desk of Guild Activities:

Please visit the website for all the details on what is happening with Guild Activities. While you are there be sure to click on all the tabs to look at all the great planning the Guild is doing, see how much information is at your fingertips on the website, and record your volunteer hours. The January newsletter includes an excellent tutorial on just how to do it.

February 8:

The 70273 Project block turn in. Please visit QGPlano.org, log in, hover your mouse over the Activities tab and then click Challenge. There you will find a description, requested block sizes, a link to the required Provenance form for all blocks turned in, a link to the project introduction, and a link to the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum if you want to read more about Aktion T4. Huge thanks to Lynne Fritsche for putting all the information under one tab for easy access.

April 27, 28, and 29:

QGP will host a Spring Day Retreat at the Dallas Games Marathon on April 27, 28, and 29. You can find information about the dates, times, and fees at QGPlano.org. Log in, hover your mouse over the Activities tab, and then click on Day Retreat. We have three more weekend day retreats planned for 2018. If you are interested in attending Day Retreats please consider joining the Dallas Quilters Marathon Facebook page to see who is coming, and any activities/lunch-dates/projects the attendees are planning. This is a closed Facebook page to keep the Day Retreat traffic off the guild-wide channels, to keep the information local to our community, and to prevent the myriad challenges associated with a fully public Facebook page. If you are not a Facebook user please email me the date(s) that you (and your friends) would like to attend through the link to the VP of Guild Activities on the left bar of the home page of our website at QGPlano.org. All members of QGP are invited, as well as members of local guilds, and the Metroplex quilting community at large.

July 12:

We will reveal the Ugly Fabric Swap Challenge projects. Please visit QGPlano.org, hover your mouse over the Activities tab, click on Challenge, and scroll to the heading Ugly Fabric Challenge for the details of this challenge. It is wide open for some amazing beast to beauty transformations. Please take pics along the way so we can see your process.

Happy to be of service to the membership of this great Guild,

Community Service

submitted by Linda Neal and Kaye Dunn

As I write this newsletter article it's 24 degrees outside-perfect weather to stay indoors and quilt! It's been a busy month for community service, even through the December holidays. We delivered 32 quilts and 1 pillowcase to the agencies we serve, along with 24 cuddles to Children's Medical Center, and a variety of items to Isabel's Community Outreach. Remember to stop by the community service table at guild to pick up or drop off items at the monthly guild meeting.

The Plano guild is also very involved in making Christmas stockings for the Veterans Hospitals. Even though we just had Christmas and 1000 stockings were delivered, we work all year long to get them ready. Last month 70 stocking kits were handed out and 89 finished stockings were received. As always, there is a need for fabric and ribbon if you are cleaning out your stash. The donated fabric can be Christmas, patriotic, tone on tone, or any appropriate novelty fabric. Please give these donations directly to Martha O'Grady at the guild meeting. The VA is very appreciative of the stockings received from us.

Everyone is invited to attend the guild's Community Service Sew days. Dates for February are: Tuesday, February 13th, for Sit and Sew at Plano Sewing Center, and Saturday, February 17th, for Saturday Sewing at the Best Little Retreat Center in Texas. Just bring your sewing machine and basic sewing supplies. Visit the guild website at QGPlano.org and look under community service for more information and to RSVP. This is a great way to get involved and meet other guild members.

We have 2 on-going challenges for community service. The first is we need help to quilt the HUGE amount of completed tops is the Quilting Challenge. Simply quilt a community service quilt and return it to enter your name into a drawing. 1 quilted quilt = 1 entry. Enter as many times as you like to increase chances of winning. The drawing will be held in September. Secondly is Kaye's pillow case challenge. Simply sew 1 pillow case each month to be donated to The Turning Point: The Rape Crisis Center of Collin County. Remember the pillow case fabric should be geared towards women or teenagers.

Remember to log your hours on the website!
Happy Quilting

Community Service: What Size Is That Quilt?

Every top made for community service is measured when it is received. The size is documented on a scrap of paper and attached to the quilt with a safety pin. We need the size to help us pick out backing: does the backing fabric need to be pieced? For binding--how many strips? And for batting size. After the quilt is completely done and it's ready to be donated, we again need to know the size to help us determine which agency it should go to. Different agencies request different size quilts. It would be VERY helpful if you are working on a community service quilt, to keep the information with the quilt during every step of the process. And using a safety pin to attach the scrap of paper keeps us from accidental pin pricks when the quilts are stacked in piles.

Thank you for all of your hard work on our community service projects!

Linda Neal

Letter from the President

I hope you all enjoyed our January Guild Meeting as much as I did. A very special thank you to Hunters Glen Baptist Church for allowing us to have our monthly meetings in their newly renovated Fellowship Hall. Our speaker, Charlotte Angotti, was a hit with our members – even though we were under a winter weather alert, we had a great turnout and it was awesome to hear the roars of laughter through the room. This was a great way to kick-off 2018.

We are starting the new year with a full board – yahoo! We have made a few additional moves to fill both the board and most of our Committee Chair positions. As of our board meeting, January 22, Angel Hawks will be moving from VP of Programs to Co-Show Chair. Sherry Worley and Dolores Williams will serve as Co-VP's of Programs, Pam Wingate will serve as VP of Education, and Dena Smith will serve as VP of Media. As well, Jan Eby will head up our Door Prize Committee and Caroline Gagnon will be our new Email Coordinator. Bee Keeper is the only leadership position open. If you are interested in serving in that position, please contact our VP of Membership at membership@qgplano.org.

A special shout-out to Lynne Fritsche for serving as our interim VP of Media. She has helped make the transition of the Media Committee seamless.

I hope to see a lot of you at our yearly retreat in February. Special thanks to Pam Walsh and Jeanne Smith on heading up the Retreat team this year. Looks like they have a lot of goodies in store for the long weekend! Happy Quilting!

Quilt Plano 2018

submitted by Pam Walsh

Quilt Plano 2018 is August 10-11, 2018

The annual guild Quilt Show is important because we get to share our wonderful creations and to spread the joy and excitement of quilting with quilters and non-quilters alike. However, Quilt Plano is also important for the continuation of the Guild and its mission of promoting the knowledge of quilting and providing education to those interested in quilting. The reason for this importance: The annual Quilt Show provides the funds needed to pay for our programs, workshops, and administrative expenses. Membership dues and workshop fees only pay for half of our expenses for Programs and Workshops. And that leaves nothing to cover the Guild's general administrative costs.

As the Show Committee, our goal is traditionally to have vendor and sponsor fees cover the expense of the Plano Event Center facility. So the biggest sources of Show profit come from the sale of admissions tickets, the Mini Quilt Auction, and the Raffle Quilt.

How can YOU help?

- Make and donate a Mini Quilt to the Auction
- Volunteer to teach a Demo during the Show – Our Demos are a big draw and set our show apart from other shows in the area
- Sell/buy raffle tickets
- Volunteer to take the Raffle Quilt to an outside venue for ticket sales
- Volunteer to deliver bookmarks or hang a Show poster in your local library or local business
- Spread the word by word of mouth and Social Media about our show
- Volunteer to join the Show Committee – we still have open positions
- Volunteer to work during Show Week – Wednesday August 8th – Saturday August 11th

Quilters Guild of Plano

The Quilters Guild of Plano exists to bring together people who share a love of quilts and quilting, preserve the heritage of quilting, promote the knowledge and understanding of all aspects of quilting, and provide opportunities for continuing education among those interested in the art of quilting. Together we learn from national and local quilt teachers and speakers, and share our work with each other and the community. All levels of quilters are encouraged to join us, including beginners. We are a 501 (c) 3 organization.

The Quilters Guild of Plano normally meets at Hunters Glen Baptist Church, 4001 Custer Road. The church is on the west side of Custer Road between Parker Road and Spring Creek Parkway. We park on the South end and enter through the South Entrance. The meetings are held in the Fellowship Hall, on the right as you enter. The Guild meets the second Thursday of Each month. Meetings start at 6:45 pm with a social time from 6:15pm to 6:45pm. Guests are always welcome at the meetings.
