submitted by Dolores Williams and Sherry Worley
 Spend a lovely evening with Kathy Dunigan and the Quilters Guild of Plano on Thursday April 12th. The lecture will be Midnight in the Garden of Appliqué. You will truly appreciate the beauty of appliqué presented by one of our own incredibly talented local artists. Kathy is well known for her high level of appliqué expertise and her gracious southern charm.

Don't forget that we still have spaces available in both workshops! If you haven't already given yourself the pleasure of a workshop taught by Kathy don't miss this opportunity. Workshop information is available at ggplano.org.

Kathy Dunigan asked us to tell you that the fabric you will be using in the Broderie Perse Class on Friday, April 13th, is much prettier than the sample photo. For anyone not familiar with Broderie Perse, a design from one fabric is cut out and appliquéd to a different background fabric. It is a great way to learn to appliqué without using many different fabrics. Kathy's Saturday April 14th class is Baltimore Basket of Roses. If you wish to learn or brush up on your appliqué skills this is a wonderful class.

Bring to April 12th Meeting:

- For Membership: Name Badge & bring a friend
- For Community Service: Pillowcase, cuddles, quilts, tops
- For Guild Activities: White blocks with 2 red XX's
- For Show 'N Tell: Completed quilts
- For Quilt Show: Mini quilt for the auction
- For Education: Learn from a Machine Binding demo
- For TAQG: Check or cash for lunch at Rally Day
- For Retreat 2019: $50 deposit
- For LovePacs: Canned Fruit and Vegetables

Friday, April 13 – Broderie Perse

Saturday, April 14 – Baltimore Basket of Roses

Programs - continued

The May meeting features our annual Quilt Show Rollout. Be prepared to sign up for helping with the Quilt Show. The meeting will also feature a few of the Demonstrations that will be presented during the show.

The workshops for May feature Michelle Dorsey where you will create a bag. One features Screen Mesh; the other teaches you how to put in a zipper. Please stop at the Programs table at the April meeting to see the workshop samples. These are great useful bags!

June brings us a power house in the form of Patsy Thompson. Patsy does it all in the world of quilting. Many of you may know her name from the wonderful digitized designs that she sells for embroidery machines. Some of you may know that she hand dyes many of the fabrics that she uses. She will be teaching Introduction to Ruler Work for the Sit-down Quilter and Free Motion Quilting for the True Beginner. Don't let these be those classes you wish you had taken! If you have ever wanted to try quilting with rulers on your home machine June is the month for you. Patsy will even have rulers that you may borrow to use in class. You will need to have a ruler foot that fits your machine. Patsy says of the Free Motion Quilting workshop "This class is geared to creating a good foundation of free motion skills that will serve you well as you continue practicing and move on toward more challenging designs. Let me help take the fear out of free motion quilting so you can discover the fun of it".

Deb Tucker will join us for a lecture in July. If you wish to take a workshop with Deb please find her local classes at www.taqq.org under Quilters Rally Day. She will present Become a Pattern Detective. This lecture is different from the two lectures she will present for TAQG.

Please do not hesitate to suggest a speaker for a future program. If you are interested in a particular speaker the chances are other members will be also.

Machine Binding Demo!

submitted by Pam Wingate

Starting with the April Guild Meeting, we'll be having Quilting Demos prior to some of our meetings. Our first one will be a Machine Binding Demo, so plan to arrive by 6:30pm and see if you can pick up a few hints & tips.

You can request a demo on a specific topic by submitting it to Pam Wingate at education@qgplano.org.

Guild Activities:

submitted by Janet Plotkin

We are still collecting blocks for The 70273 Project through the April meeting. If you want to make a white block with two red X's embroidered, appliquéd, pieced, or other technique, please bring them to the April meeting. I will start setting them shortly after that meeting and bring the finished quilt to the Guild meeting before it is shipped to the Project.

The Dallas Quilters Marathon Day Retreat is April 27, 28, and 29. Please email me directly or thru the Guild Activities link on the front page of the website if you want to be added to the list of attendees. If you have already clicked that you are attending on the Dallas Quilters Marathon page you are on the list. We will begin at 9am Friday and end at 4pm Sunday. There is lots more info on the Guild page under Retreat.

Quilt Plano 2018

Quilt Plano 2018 is only 4 months away. Our publicity will start rolling out within the next month. Admission ticket sales are one of our primary sources of income for the show. You can help boost attendance by spreading the word in the following ways:

- ❖ Hanging a poster at your local library, senior center, or business
- ❖ Helping with the delivery of pre-sale tickets and posters to area quilt stores
- ❖ Posting on Social Media

May will be our Quilt Show Roll-Out at the regular Guild Meeting time. It will be your opportunity to sign up for numerous volunteer slots, get a preview of some of the demos to be offered during the show, and to turn in your quilt entry forms.

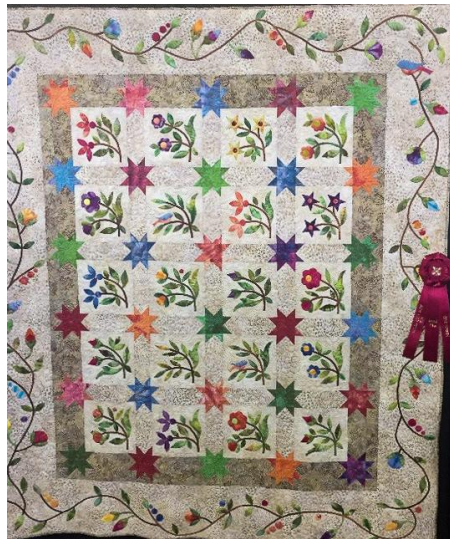

If you were able to attend the Dallas Quilt Show, I hope that you saw our beautiful Raffle Quilt for Quilt Plano 2018 with its second place ribbon. Thanks again and congratulations to the group participating in its creation:

- Sherry Worley
- Donna Petrick
- Kaye Dunn
- Linda Neal
- Chris Cessnun
- Dolores Williams
- Valerie Salter
- Patti Griffith
- Kathi Gibson

The drawing for this stunning quilt will be held on Saturday, August 11th at 3:30 during our Quilt Show.

Quilt Plano 2018 Special Exhibits

submitted by Jeanne Smith and Janet Carver

Last year, we displayed completed projects from our guild workshops as part of our Special Exhibits. These were very popular with our visitors and guild members. Everyone could see examples of the new and inspiring projects we completed in the past year. After viewing the exhibit, we even had several show visitors join the guild and sign up for future workshops. So please consider sharing your class projects!

To inspire both guests and members, we want to hang completed workshop projects again. If you attended a workshop during the past year, please complete your item and allow us to display it. Specifically, we are looking for entries from:

- Those Amazing Stripes (Brenda Perry)
- Captivating Compositions for Art Quilts (Deborah Boschert)
- Techniques in Paint and Ink (Deborah Boschert)
- Surprise Yourself (Charlotte Angotti)
- Let Me Surprise You (Charlotte Angotti)
- Broderie Perse (Kathy Dunigan)
- Baltimore Basket of Roses (Kathy Dunigan)
- Sassy Screen Tote Bag (Michelle Dorsey)
- Happy Bag (Michelle Dorsey)
- Ruler Work Quilting (Patsy Thompson)
- Free Motion Quilting for the True Beginner (Patsy Thompson)
- Ugly Fabric Swap Challenge steered by Janet Plotkin

We would like to hang at least 4 examples from a workshop. The quilts do not need to be completed until quilt turn-in time (Tuesday, August 7, 2018), but we will need to have a count of the committed quilts by the June 14th guild meeting in order to plan the exhibit. Remember, the quilts hung in Special Exhibits are not judged. They are hung to inspire our guests and to show the new techniques we have tried, but not necessarily mastered, during the year.

If you have completed a project from an earlier workshop that you would like to display, please let us know. For more information, contact Jeanne Smith or Janet Carver at specialexhibits@ggplano.org. Forms to enter your project for display will be available on the Quilt Show/Special Exhibits page on the website by April 1st, 2018.

Little Things Mean a Lot

submitted by Kaye Dunn

It's hard to believe but our Quilt Show is only about 4 months away. Members are busy finishing bindings, sleeves and labels and sending in those entry forms. Committee members are reviewing their check lists and signing up helpers. Extra attention is being focused on all the little details in order to have a successful show.

In the midst of all this I hope you don't neglect making a Mini Quilt for the Auction. Little things mean a lot. Last year the Mini Auction accounted for about 20% of the show's profit. With your help we can meet or exceed that number this year.

Guidelines for Making a Mini Quilt can be found on the web site under Quilt Show 2018/Mini Quilt Auction. We will be accepting entries until the July guild meeting.

Letter from the President

Spring is here! And what comes with Spring is “Spring Cleaning”. I am in the process of completely re-organizing my sewing studio and I’m loving it. It’s a little crazy to find all those projects that I love (or thought I loved it when I bought it), but never seemed to find the time to finish – so I will continue my challenge to finish at least one UFO per quarter.

Spring is also a time to take a fresh look at what’s going on, and I am so fired up with all that is happening at Quilters Guild of Plano. Our March meeting had over 100 attendees including visitors and new members. A special thank you to everyone that participates in our Community Service projects – it’s amazing to see how many quilts and Christmas stockings are being finished. Between day retreats, community service sew-days and upcoming workshops there are all kinds of opportunities to get involved.

I hope everyone is working on their show entries for Quilt Plano 2018. Also, don’t forget that any time spent making Mini Quilts for the Silent Auction goes towards free entry into the Show. Our May Guild meeting is a meeting you don’t want to miss – whether you are a new member or a veteran to the guild, you will find out everything you need to know about our show.

Happy Quilting!

Rose Davis
President

The Texas Wednesday Girls and Pam Walsh made some beautiful bags and displayed them at our March meeting. Some members asked about the pattern for the bags, so here’s a picture from the pattern:

Community Service

submitted by Linda Neal

In February, Community Service donated 23 pillowcases, 8+ quilts, 25 cuddles, and 1 dog bed. Plus, we gave out lots of tops for quilting.

In March, the Community Service table was overflowing with finished quilts. It was amazing! We could barely keep up! A big thank you to everyone that completed a quilted top for the quilting challenge, completed a pillow case, cuddle, baby hat, or binding. The response has been great--which can be seen from the photo of Kaye Dunn and Kathy Gibson with the huge piles of quilts. The quilts have been divided up, washed, and taken to various agencies our guild serves. We have LOTS more tops, both spray basted and NOT spray basted, ready for the April meeting--see photo. Plus, larger quilts for long-armers. As always, remember to log your hours on the website and enter into our quilting contest for each top you quilt.

Please remember to bring baby related items for donation for the PISD graduation. Donations will be accepted at the April and May meetings. Items donated can be quilts, baby/toddler clothes, or anything baby related. Thank you for your support!

It's always Christmas time in Community service..... well as far as Christmas stockings are concerned! Since last January our guild has donated 1648 stockings! We always have pre-cut stocking kits available for members to sew. Remember: OCTOBER is the deadline for returning the completed stockings. This allows the other agencies time to fill the stockings. Also, any donations of Christmas fabric or items to fill the stockings are always welcomed.

The next Tuesday Community Service sit and sew is April 10th at Plano Sewing Center. The next Saturday Community Service sit and sew is April 21st at The Best Little Retreat Center in Texas. Please visit the guild website for more information. We would love to have you join us!

Kathy Gibson and Kaye Dunn with the finished quilts that were turned into March's guild meeting

Tubs of quilts ready for next month's meeting: to be quilted (46), large quilts for long-armers (6), and ready to bind (19)

Quilters Guild of Plano

The Quilters Guild of Plano exists to bring together people who share a love of quilts and quilting, preserve the heritage of quilting, promote the knowledge and understanding of all aspects of quilting, and provide opportunities for continuing education among those interested in the art of quilting. Together we learn from national and local quilt teachers and speakers, and share our work with each other and the community. All levels of quilters are encouraged to join us, including beginners. We are a 501 (c) 3 organization.

The Quilters Guild of Plano normally meets at Hunters Glen Baptist Church, 4001 Custer Road. The church is on the west side of Custer Road between Parker Road and Spring Creek Parkway. We park on the South end and enter through the South Entrance. The meetings are held in the Fellowship Hall, on the right as you enter. The Guild meets the second Thursday of each month. Meetings start at 6:45 pm with a social time from 6:15pm to 6:45pm. Guests are always welcome at the meetings.
