February Program

Jeanne Smith

The month of February can be grey and depressing, but our February guest speaker, Martha Lindberg, brings an excitement and a promise of spring-like creativity with her colorful palette and adventurous quilts. Martha’s presentation titled “My Quilt Journey” will also include a fabulous trunk show highlighting the many “styles and phases” that she has gone through during her quilting years.

The workshop “Wonky Dresden Neighborhood” is a one day/fun day held on Saturday, February 16. Just looking at the class sample makes you smile! Everyone participating in Martha’s workshop will take home an original “wonky” neighborhood all their own!

At our March guild meeting, Teresa Duryea Wong, from Houston, will be the guest speaker. She is a quilt researcher, author and lecturer. Teresa has a new book out titled “American Cotton: Farm to Quilt” and she will share a presentation on this topic. After all, “Texas is the heart of cotton country”!

Now here is a sneak peek of our April workshops taught by Karen Combs of Tennessee. Her quilts are known for taking a traditional pattern and giving it her own unique "twist." Karen is intrigued with quilts of illusions and has been designing quilts with a 3-D look for several years. Go to her website to learn more about this innovative teacher! www.karencombs.com

Friday, April 12 she will teach Patchwork Illusions. Karen has developed a quick and easy rotary technique that allows you to make quilts with a 3-D look.

Saturday, April 13, Karen teaches Combing Through Your Scraps. You will magically put your fabric stash to work by making a wonderful scrap quilt.

As you can see, we are headed into Spring with quite a lot of inspiration.

Hope everyone takes advantage of these talented teachers and their great workshops!

Finding Treasure

I love going to the mail box. It's like opening a present. You're never sure what's in it or if you're going to like it. Ok, I know most of the contents will be junk mail and there can always be bills to pay but occasionally there will be that rarest of "treasures", a personal card or letter.

I know I'm a dinosaur sometimes but I still pay my bills with hand written checks and send Christmas cards every December. And it was such a joy to receive holiday notes and pictures from friends and family – one of the few times a year I hear from them.

We live in a world of instant messaging, incomplete sentences, abbreviations, emojis, and misspelled words. Penmanship is considered archaic since no one writes letters or cards or checks or anything anymore. You don't even have to use a pen to sign a charge slip these days – just scribble something with your finger tip. And it doesn't even have to look like your name.

This brings me to my point. You have been faithful to Community Service and last year we donated almost 350 quilts to the agencies we support. For the most part we never know who receives those quilts or how they impact lives. But now and again we receive a thank you note like this one – hand written and included in a Christmas greeting:

Dear Quilters Guild of Plano,

Thank you so much for the beautiful quilt. Our daughter at not even 1 month of age was hospitalized and needed a radiology procedure. Your gift helped us by brightening our days during a hard time. Thank you so much.

Susan and Gary Hoell

I hope this inspires you to continue making quilts for those in need, and encourages you to take the time to write a note or a letter. Just imagine the "treasure" they'll find when they open their mail box.

Quilt Show 2019

Hello All -

On January 20th we had our second Show Committee meeting and the show is moving right along! Rose Davis is taking Bids if you are interested in making our Show T-Shirts. All bids must be into Rose Davis by 2/16/19. Please contact her to get all the specifications on the T-shirts - this has already been done for you!

We currently have 18 mini's and are looking for 80 - I hope everyone will spend the time to donate a mini to the show as this brings in a large amount of our profits for the Guild.

This year all Raffle Tickets will need to be PREPAID - Please plan on bringing $20 to the February Guild meeting or to Retreat if you are going. You are more than welcome to sell your tickets to all your friends to get your money back - this will allow us to ensure all the tickets result in a sale instead of running out like we did last year which left several hundreds of dollars on the table that we could have gotten for our Guild.

We are also looking for a Co-committee person to help Leanne with Door Prizes - this person would be responsible for going to the stores and picking up door prizes. Again, please contact Julie Brooks if you are interested

Thank you so much for all of our Members who volunteer and support our Guild - we are truly a wonderful bunch of people and I am so grateful to be a part of this organization that does so much good for so many people.

Education – Junior Quilters

Calling All Junior Quilters – If anyone knows of a Junior Quilter that would like to learn how to quilt then have them sign up for a year of fun and quilting. Classes are open to junior quilters ages 9-12 and we will meet monthly on the 2nd Sunday of the month at the Best Little Retreat Center in Texas in Dallas. Pam Wingate has volunteered her Retreat Center for our use. Thank you, Pam! Each class builds on the skills presented in the previous class. The first class reviews machine operations and sewing techniques. The completed quilts will be displayed in the next year's Plano Quilt Show.

If you know of someone interested in joining the group, or if you're interested in teaching or helping out with the classes, please contact Kathy Scott at sewcrafty27@twc.com.

Attention QGP members. I have some exciting learning and educational things happening this year. In February I will introduce a fast way to cut out blocks and appliqué using the Brother Scan-n-Cut. So plan on getting to the meeting at 6:15 so that you can see what this machine can do. If anyone has any other ideas on what QGP members would like to learn, please contact me, Kathy Scott – sewcrafty27@twc.com.

Guild Activities

It is now February; can you believe it? Only one more month and it will be springtime, my favorite time of year! Things start to turn green and the weather is perfect. There's lots of rainy days to stay in and sew and spring cleaning can begin! While that last part may not sound like a "fun" thing, it sure is a part of having a happy and functioning home. Going through all of the things that you have collected throughout the year and making tough decisions, or organizing that corner you have neglected can seem like an awful project.

But cleaning up and clearing out can have a wonderful affect on your mood and outlook! So here is my challenge to you: Let's get a head start on spring cleaning by tackling our sewing areas. Yes, I know it sounds like a daunting proposition, but I promise that you will come out of it feeling accomplished, and maybe even a little inspired. So, whether you have a dedicated sewing room, a closet, or even a tiny nook, let's get to organizing! Start small by taking on one section at a time. Maybe your books and patterns, or maybe your fat quarter collection. Label two boxes, one with "Sell" and one with "Donate". Anything can go into these boxes. The goal is to take a really hard look at all of the things we collect and decide "Do I really need this? Will I ever use it?"

As you go through your spaces, take care to organize all the things you decide to keep. Use tubs, labels, anything that helps you stay organized. If you are feeling really brave, make a list of your UFO's and pin it to the wall so you can check things off as you finish them this year. If you take this on with me, I promise that when Spring does arrive, it will do so to a beautiful sewing space that will make you smile.

The big retreat is finally here! What will you be working on? How many projects should you bring? Should you bring M&M's or Skittles? These are all things to think about and are all equally important! My advice to you is start making your list of what to pack, and once you choose your projects, cut them out and kit them up so you can show up and start sewing. If you are taking the spring-cleaning challenge, this is the perfect time to start setting things aside that need to be packed for retreat. And by golly, let's be crazy and bring both M&M's and Skittles! What happens at retreat stays at retreat!

Our next three-day retreat will be Wednesday April 18-Friday April 20th at Best Little Retreat Center in Texas. If you would like to sign up for the three day retreat, please head over to the website and click on "Day Retreats" under the Activities tab, to find out more information and print out a Day Retreat Registration Form. I will also have signup sheets available at the Activity table in the main hallway at guild meetings if you would like to sign up while there. Retreats are a great place to meet other members and learn new techniques while having a blast!

Quiltmakers Puzzle Block of the Month is now in month five! At the February meeting, I will be revealing block patterns for blocks 9 and 10. Bring in your completed blocks from any of the previous months and we will have a big reveal during show and tell. I apologize; I forgot to do this at the last meeting! For those that are new, this is a free challenge that focuses on color value, and its importance in creating a successful quilt. Using only 8 fabrics you will make the same blocks every month, but with unique color placement within each block design, you will be able to create blocks that look strikingly different from one another. To find instructions, patterns, fabric requirements and a swatch page, as well as other resources, go to the website at www.qgplano.org under the Activities tab, and click on "Challenge". I can't wait to see your blocks!

Membership

January was our biggest month for attendance, the room was overflowing. We had 115 members present, 3 visitors, and 7 new members.

We would like to welcome our visitors; Kathy Czekaj, Sara Oisez, and Katheryn Hardage. It was nice to meet these ladies and we invited them to come back to another meeting.

Please help welcome our new members: Lori Beach, Jeanne Fletcher, Marie Hulbert, Kim Imel, Nancy Perry and Annalee Smith. We also would like to welcome back a returning former member Anne Leather. Please look for these ladies at our next meeting and show them how our Guild welcomes them.

We did get some of the 2018/2019 membership cards picked-up, however, we would encourage each of you to check and make sure you have picked-up your new card. The cards will be available at the February meeting and will be taken to the retreat.

The February meeting will be the last meeting to pay your dues for the 2018/2019 year, after that we will start the process of marking non-paid members as in-active.

Looking forward to seeing everyone at the February meeting.

Letter from the President

There are a lot of things going on around Quilters Guild of Plano. It is very exciting to see how many visitors and new members are attending our meetings. That makes it even more important for all of us to wear name tags. If you don't have one, this is your chance to make one – a chance to share your creativity for all to see.

One of our newest members is Jeanne Fletcher. And I am excited to let you know that she has agreed to be our TAQG rep starting this year. She is a very committed member of TAQG and it is great that we will have her representing our Guild. She will be at our February meeting updating us on TAQG business, please take a minute to meet her and welcome her to the Guild.

Our yearly retreat is almost here – I can't wait to see what Julie Brooks and her team have for us all. This is such a great time to meet your fellow Guild members.

Please keep in mind that getting involved in a small group, whether it is a community service sew day, workshops or individual small group, it is the best way of meeting people and enjoying what all our Guild offers.

I look forward to seeing you all!!!

Happy Quilting,

Stocking Report

I gave out 205 stockings to be completed and received 53 finished stockings toward our October goal of 1000. I was so very pleased with all the stockings that y'all made last year. Some of you went above and beyond and made stockings from your own stash! These were consistently the most beautiful of all.

If there is something wrong with a kit, I am sorry. I make a lot of mistakes. If it is something that can be fixed easily, thank you for doing that. If it cannot be fixed, just bring it back, and we will try again. If you have taken a kit and have discovered that you will not be able to finish it, please feel I free to bring it back. That is totally okay, as someone else would love to do it.

Martha O'Grady

Shelter Pet Beds

I have taken 53 shelter pet beds to various shelters and rescue societies. I took 22 to the Sachse animal shelter, and she was happy to receive them, and 30 to Wylie. I am trying to "spread the love" and take our beds to different places. I have found several rescue societies that would love to have beds to give to fostering homes.

I encourage you to take beds to the shelter of your choice, or to a group that rescues. Be sure to log your hours, and notify Community Service.

To make a bed, simply make a "sack." I like to fold the fabric selvage to selvage and stitch the two cut sides. This leaves the selvages at the opening. Turn the sewn seams to the inside. Place in a waste basket as a "liner." Fill about 2/3 full of scraps, and sew it shut. I like to straight stitch a seam, then flip and zigzag the same seam to add sturdiness.

Another idea is pants legs. Even easier simply to sew the two ends! This makes a smaller bed, perfect for kittens and puppies as well as the smaller breeds.

The Inn is Moving

The Samaritan Inn will relocate to its new homeless center in early February. The Samaritan Inn is currently located at 1710 N. McDonald St., McKinney. Ground was broken on the new residential building and pavilion in June 2015. The new center will serve 200 individuals per night and will be located at 1514 N. McDonald St. This is the first of four phases that will eventually house 800.

The Samaritan Inn is the only homeless shelter in Collin County and provides a comprehensive homeless program. Currently, approximately 160 people sleep at the Inn, 60 of which are children, according to the company's website.

www.thesamaritaninn.org

The Quilters Guild of Plano is privileged to support The Samaritan Inn by providing quilts and pillowcases for adults and children.

Texas Association of Quilt Guilds

The March Special Interest meeting will be held in our new location at Mimosa Lane Baptist Church 1233 North Belt Line in Mesquite. If this location sounds familiar it is because that is where we have held Rally Day for the past several years. Our meetings will now start at 12:00pm (Noon). We will no longer serve refreshments, so eat before you get there! The new starting time will allow us to extend the meeting as needed to more fully cover the topics being discussed. We do not expect to ever go later than 2:30, with 2:00 being our target adjournment.

There are two lovely quilt stores in the area for your shopping amusement. Watt A Find is located at 910 W Kearney, Pieced Together Studio is located at 205 W Main. Both are just a stone's throw away from Mimosa Lane Baptist Church.

The Special Interest Meeting topic is Social Media on Tuesday, March 26th, 2019. It is to include everything from Facebook and twitter to Newsletters and Guild websites. If you can offer any insight into Facebook and twitter and would like to help by submitting information, please contact our new TAQG Rep Jeanne Fletcher.

Quilters Guild of Plano is one of the host guilds for Rally Day. A number of volunteer positions are available. They include, but are not limited to: helping promote Rally Day at the Dallas Quilt Celebration, helping to pick up door prizes and raffle prizes, helping to package door prizes to be given away, work with Pam Holland, supervise the workshops, serve lunch at the Thursday and Friday workshops, and more that we are not even aware of at the moment. We will need a lot of volunteers on July 13th for Rally Day. Those jobs include: giving out door prizes when they are drawn, selling Rally Day Raffle Tickets, and filling in anywhere you are needed. Because Rally Day is one of the official tasks of QGP, you will be able to count your service hours as service to QGP. Please address any Rally Day Volunteer questions to Sherry Worley.

Next month... What is TAQG? And more about Rally Day!

Committee Reports:

Community Service: Linda Neal and Kaye Dunn

- It's January and the 2019 Raffle Quilt needs to be made. The members were asked to pick up a kit during the break and after the meeting. The kits include red and white fabric. The block may be made in any design and size at the discretion of the maker. The blocks are due on or before April 11th. Members were asked to put on the back of the block the name of the block and the maker. Hand or machine appliqué are acceptable but not red work. Any leftover fabric needs to be returned in the plastic bag with the block. The time that is needed to make the block may be entered on the website toward hours for the Presidential Volunteer Service Award under Community Service. The blocks will be combined to make the 2019 Raffle Quilt. Left over blocks may be made into a companion quilt. All levels of blocks will be accepted. Instructions for making the blocks are on the website.

- There were 46 quilts, 95 cuddles and 35 pillowcases turned in from the last general meeting.
- Last year 327 quilts were completed for distribution to our community projects. Kaye challenged the members to break that record and assist in completing quilts for this following year by attending a Sew Day, completing a Birthday Quilt, piecing a top from a kit provided or from one's own stash, quilting or binding a quilt.
- January 26th will be the monthly Saturday Sew Day at the Best Little Retreat Center in Texas. Contact Sandy Buttine subotr@att.net to enroll.
- The second Thursday of every month is Sit and Sew Day at the Plano Sewing Center. The next one will be February 12 from 10:00 to 2:00. Contact Donna Petrick petrickdl@outlook.com.

Quilters Guild of Plano

The Quilters Guild of Plano exists to bring together people who share a love of quilts and quilting, preserve the heritage of quilting, promote the knowledge and understanding of all aspects of quilting, and provide opportunities for continuing education among those interested in the art of quilting. Together we learn from national and local quilt teachers and speakers, and share our work with each other and the community. All levels of quilters are encouraged to join us, including beginners. We are a 501 (c) 3 organization.

The Quilters Guild of Plano normally meets at Hunters Glen Baptist Church, 4001 Custer Road. The church is on the west side of Custer Road between Parker Road and Spring Creek Parkway. We will be meeting at the north end of the church again – where we met last year. There is parking around the north side building and a large parking lot across Pleasant Valley Drive. Enter the double doors on the north side. Immediately to the right is a set of stairs and an elevator. You will take those to the second floor and go down the hall to rooms 266 and 267 at the end of the hall. There will be signs pointing the way. The Guild meets the second Thursday of each month. Meetings start at 6:45 pm with a social time from 6:15pm to 6:45pm. Guests are always welcome at the meetings.
